BOIL THE WATER SAYS DR. PROBST

Great Epidemic of Typhoid Fever in the State.

EXCEEDS THAT OF ANY PREVIOUS YEAR

Not Confined to Any One Class or Locality.

Farming Communities as Well as Urban Centers Are Suffering from the Epidemic—One Hundred Cases Over at Mansfield—Twenty at the Girls' Industrial Home Near Delaware—Other Localities Affected.

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—Ohio is immersed in the fire of typhoid fever.

An epidemic has set in within the past three weeks that alarms Dr. C. O. Probst, head of the state department of health.

The prevalence of the disease is not confined to any particular section of the state nor any one type of population, but is raging in rural as well as urban quarters, in sparsely-settled sections as in populous centers.

Generally the disease is confined largely to the cities because of their greater hazards of pollution of the water and food supplies. But farming communities are quite as numerous in the victim list as larger cities.

Dr. Probst stated today that within the past two weeks there has been greater demands for the testing of water by the state chemical and bacteriological laboratory than during any similar period history of the department.

Universal in State.

Likewise, Probst says, the demand is from a wider range of territory than ever before, being in fact almost universal in the state.

The cause of the sudden appearance and extent of the epidemic is unknown, but it is believed that some great general source of pollution has been operating.

Some doctors think that the unusual amount of water which fell this summer is to blame, causing more than usual flows of streams on whose currents have been carried the water-borne pathegons.

Dr. Probst has State Health Inspector Dr. Platter investigating. He has already visited Mansfield where there are 100 cases and Willoughby, Greenville and Oberlin, each with upwards of twenty cases.

There are some twenty-five cases at the Girls' Industrial home near Delaware. Nearly every city in the state has an unusually large number of cases and the disease is showing in almost all the rural sections.

Boil the water, is Dr. Probst's warning.

HAS A FIGHTING CHANCE FOR LIFE

But Her Assailant Is Found Hanging in Grove.

New York, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Bessie Smith has a fighting chance for life today and Fred Kraus, a nineteen-year-old farmhand, lies dead in a Morristown, New Jersey, morgue, after hanging himself yesterday to escape a posse bent on lynching him for his attack on Mrs. Smith.

Kraus was employed by George L. Smith, husband of the woman he attacked, and for weeks he had importuned his employer to allow him to marry his seventeen-year-old daughter, Marguerite. Smith laughed at the ambitions of his farmhand and yesterday morning Kraus left his work in the field and returned to the Smith house, breaking into the room where the women were asleep. Mrs. Smith awoke and struggled with the man, who beat her unconscious with a club. The girl leaped from a second-story window and hurried to a neighbor for help. Kraus escaped and a hurriedly-organized posse scoured the woods and fields for hours. Late in the afternoon they found the body of the farmhand hanging to a tree in the heart of a chestnut grove two miles from the Smith home.

Killed by Burglar Trap.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 19.—A negro burglar was shot and instantly killed by a revolver connected with the cash register in the store of A. T. Morris, Fort Thomas, Kentucky, Wednesday night. The man had broken into the store and pressed the key to the cash register. The drawer was connected by a string to the revolver, hidden behind the shelf. Morris was exonerated.

DELIBERATE PLAN TO SINK WARSHIPS

Discovered by Finding of Dynamite in Coal Bunkers.

London, Aug. 19.—Proof of a deliberate attempt to destroy at least three English warships has been found, it leaked out today, by the men who are investigating the discovery of dynamite in the coal that was being taken aboard the battleships, Lord Nelson and Victorious, and the cruiser, Duke of Edinburg.

No verdict has yet been announced, but it is known that the investigators found the dynamite to be different from that used in blasting coal. It was found, too, that the coal came from different mines, thus disposing of the theory of accident.

In the belief that a plot to destroy ships of the British navy is in operation, the government has issued orders for a thorough overhauling of coal supplies and more careful future coaling of warships. The three vessels that have been imperiled are valued at $23,250,000 and carry 3,226 men.

Deputy Fire Marshal.

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—Lloyd Richards, of Belle Center, was appointed as a deputy state fire marshal by Marshal J. W. Zuber, Thursday. He is a Democrat, and will be assigned to the Logan district.

THAW IS BACK IN MATTEAWAN

Placed in the Same Quarters He Used Before.

SUGGESTIONS OF COURT DISREGARDED

Dr. Baker Says They Were Not Court Orders.

Thaw Hoped To Be Kept in a Room Separate from the Hopelessly Insane and Apart from the Tuberculosis Patients—Also Wanted To Remain Up Till 9 P. M. That He Might Read.

Fishkill Landing, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Denied all the privileges which Justice Mills suggested, Harry K. Thaw has been sent back to the old routine of his life at Matteawan, his condition bettered not at all. He lives out the same routine of which he complained so bitterly, and which Justice Mills declared was a hardship on the prisoner.

Today Thaw is receiving the same kind of treatment accorded to other prisoners.

In recommitting Thaw, Justice Mills said the court was by no means satisfied with the treatment accorded the prisoner, but he is getting the same kind of treatment as the others. Justice Mills, declaring Thaw was not being punished for a crime, but was being held as an unfortunate insane man, suggested a change in his treatment.

Suggestion Scorned.

Thaw today was compelled to get up at the regulation hour and to live the regulation life of the old insane. He occupies the same room he held before his habeas corpus proceedings and is forced to associate with insane persons. Thaw asked for a room on the lower floor of the institution in which he should be kept apart from the tuberculosis patients, but this was refused him. He also asked for the privilege of staying up until 9 o'clock at night that he might read. This was denied him. Dr. Baker, acting superintendent at Matteawan, declares Justice Mills' suggestion did not come in the shape of a court order, and than he did not intend to grant Thaw any special requests.

Thaw, in a final statement before going back to Matteawan, declared it was hard to be sent to "prison" for life by one man—Justice Dowling, who sent him to the asylum—after twelve men on a jury had declared him innocent of murder.

TWENTY-TWO MEN AT MERCY OF SEA

They Are Adrift in Two Barges on the Atlantic.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—Adrift in two barges, the Shawmont and Saucon, twenty-two men are believed to be facing death on the high seas near here today. The tugs, Valley Forge and Monocacy, which arrived at Saunderstown, Rhode Island, today, report the loss of the barges in Tuesday's storm.

CASHIER SHOT BY YOUNG GIRL

Who Accuses Him of Her Downfall.

EMPTIES REVOLVER INTO HIS PERSON

Fires Two Shots from Outside the Office.

Then Rushes In and Fires Four. Former Lover Seeks Safety in Safe—There Gets Two Bullets. Falls to Floor and the Sixth Bullet Is Fired into His Lung by the Crazed Woman.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Miss Elvira Todd, 22, shot and fatally wounded Richard D. Watson, 24, cashier of the Central of Georgia railroad, in his office here. Six shots were fired at Watson from a 32-caliber revolver, three of which entered the body, one just above the heart. The shooting caused considerable excitement and the police were compelled to break down the door to capture the young woman. In her statement to the police Miss Todd accused Watson of causing her downfall and declared he was on the point of deserting her.

The young woman claims that Watson held out a ray of hope for her until a few days ago, when he "threw her over." She says that she loved "Dick" and could not see him marry another woman.

After firing two shots from outside the building through a window, the woman rushed into Watson's office. Seeing that he was cornered and having no way to protect himself, Watson attempted to get inside of a large iron safe. At this moment the crazed woman began firing again. The first shot went wild; the second penetrated Watson's collar and grazed the Adam's apple. The next shot broke his right leg, and from this wound Watson fell to the floor. He begged for his life, but, standing directly over his prostrate form, the woman fired the last cartridge in the pistol. This entered Watson's chest, about an inch above the heart, penetrating the left lung and passing out through the shoulder blade.

CHILDREN DYING OF CHOLERA INFANTUM

Two Little Cousins Are Laid Side by Side.

Cholera infantum's toll among Marion children is greater this summer than a year ago, physicians say. Two deaths from this malady in the families of two sisters, one child dying during the funeral hour of the other, occurred this week.

Tuesday morning, Chester, the sixteen-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elliott, of Meadow street, died after a week's illness. The funeral services were held at the Elliott home, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. S. C. Bates, pastor of the Lee Street Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was made in the Marion cemetery.

At the time the funeral services were being held, George Arthur, aged six months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. England, of the Garden City pike, died at the family residence. Mrs. England is a sister of Mrs. Elliott.

The funeral services of the England child were held at the Lee Street Methodist mission, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. H. V. McCleary, pastor of the Wesley M. E. church, officiating. Burial was made in the Marion cemetery, the graves of both children being side by side.

Figuring on Successor.

Cleveland Aug. 19.—The question of a successor to Manager Lajoie of the Naps has simmered down to three well-known baseball men—Bill Bernhard, manager of the Nashville team; Billy Murray, manager of the Philadelphia Nationals and "Fielder" Jones, the former manager of the White Sox. That is, the question has simmered down to these men in the minds of the Cleveland fans. Owners Kilfoyl and Sommers, still keep silence on the identity of the two men they have under consideration. They say they hope to announce the new manager early next week.

President's Cousin Killed.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 19.—Charles Taft, a cousin of the president and a prominent merchant of Pryor, was killed by lightning at Trinidad, Colorado, being the first victim of an electrical storm which is creating havoc throughout the state today.

TWO KILLED AND MANY ARE HURT

When the Boiler of Passenger Engine Bursts.

ACCIDENT OCCURS NEAR GRAND LEDGE

While the Train Makes Thirty Miles an Hour.

Fast Resort Train on the Pere Marquette Between Detroit and Petoskey Suffers Misfortune—Engineer and Fireman Killed and the Engine, Baggage Car and Day Coach Are Demolished.

Grand Ledge, Mich., Aug. 19.—Two men were instantly killed and many people injured when the boiler of a Pere Marquette locomotive attached to the fast resort train between Detroit and Petoskey blew up near here shortly after midnight, while running thirty miles an hour.

Those killed were William Bradley, engineer, Ionia, and Fred L. Graves, fireman, Grand Rapids.

The known injured are Mrs. Doud, Grand Rapids; Charles Swanson, Detroit; Charles L. Walker, Grand Rapids, and Glenn Amigh, Grand Ledge.

The engine, baggage car and day coach were demolished by the explosion. Charles C. Walker, a salesman, crawled through a hole in the roof of the day coach and ran two miles into Grand Ledge to tell of the accident. He was badly cut about the head and collapsed after reaching town.

THE WRIGHTS REACH BERLIN

Orville Is Accompanied by Sister, Katherine.

ENTHUSIASM CAUSED BY THEIR ARRIVAL

Orville Will Make German Flights Next Week.

Hopes That Emperor William Will Be Present To Witness Them. Germans Are Hoping That Wright Will Break the Record Made at Mourmelon by Sommer—Kaiser Is Interested.

Berlin, Aug. 19.—Orville Wright and his sister, Katherine, arrived in Berlin today from London, and have taken the "Prinz's apartments" in the most exclusive hotel in the city.

The arrival of the noted aeronaut aroused considerable enthusiasm and was the occasion of general newspaper comment.

Wright preserved his usual taciturnity. He expressed the hope that Emepror William would be present to witness his flights here next week. His wish is likely to be gratified, for the Kaiser's intention is to be present. The Kaiser is greatly interested in aviation though up to the present time he has been so partial to dirigible balloons that he has not given aeroplanes or heavier-than-air machines much attention.

Germany is anxious to hold an aeroplane record and Wright is already being beseeched to make good, partially at least, the prediction he made in New York just before sailing for England that a flight of twenty-five hours only awaits that development of a motor that will stand the strain of such an exertion. It is confidently believed he will break the record recently established at Mourmelon by Sommer.

Wright expects to test his aeroplane tomorrow. The machine he uses was turned out by the French factory that manufactures Wright machines exclusively.

CITY OF BOSTON FALLS AT NOON

Thrilling Engagements Near City Are Ended.

THE CITY IS TAKEN BY GENERAL BLISS

Despite Repeated Repulses by General Pew.

While General Bliss, Commanding the Attacking Army, Has Outmaneuvered the Leader of the Defensive Forces His Navy Has Had All Kinds of Trouble—Five Torpedo Boats Sunk.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 19.—Boston has fallen and the war game is over. As the result of desperate fighting today at Bryantville and along the line of march to Hanover Four Corners, General Bliss' red army officially declared to have turned the flank of the blue army under General Pew and to have opened a straight road to Boston. Then General Wood, chief umpire of the game, declared the campaign at a close at noon.

The final victory for the New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and District of Columbia troops, who principally formed the invading army, came late this morning at Bodisve "battle," which was waged at Hanover Four Corners between the 9,000 invaders under General Bliss and the 7,000 defenders led by General William A. Pew.

Blues Escape Reds.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 19.—Terrific fighting by land and sea, the repulse of a hot attack on Boston by the red arm battleships and the apparently successful retreat of the blue defending army from a tight position into which they had been forced by the red invaders marked the early hours of the fifth day of the great war game.

When the fighting opened at 5 o'clock the two armies lay in the form of a letter A with Bryantville at its apex. On the right side of the angle were the red forces massed strongly together, while the blues, to the left or westward, were disorganized and scattered. An opportune decision of the umpire enabled General Pew to reform his defenders, and while the advantage in tactics is still to the reds, the chances of their winning a signal victory without hard fighting are slim.

The fighting commenced in Bryantville and after four hours the main forces of both armies were racing for Hanover, a few miles north, where General Bliss will try to turn the flanks of the blue and thus get a straight line to march on Boston.

In Hot Position.

The fighting in Bryantville for an hour was very spectacular. The First corps of coast artillery occupied a hot position on the firing line and with the Sixth infantry did most of the early fighting. General Bliss' intention was to make a feint on the blues' right flank and then turn the left flank with his main body of troops. Early in the morning, General Pew discovered the red commander's plan and is successfully meeting it with a forced march of his main body, forcing the reds well toward the sea.

The feint was made by the field artillery of the District of Columbia, but they were safely held by the corps of coast artillery to whom General Pew sent C battery and a battalion of the Ninth infantry as supports. These troops are now covering the retreat of the coast artillery, which is being made in excellent order.

By the decision of the umpires the First and Second corps of cadets, who were in a very tight position this morning, practically surrounded by reds, were granted one hour to fall back and reform the front of the provisional brigade. By a forced march they succeeded in doing this within the time limit and they are now falling back with division headquarters to Hanover Four Corners, where General Pew has established his headquarters.

The masterly manner in which General Pew discovered and checked the feint movement of the red forces has completely changed the aspect of things and the situation looks much brighter for the blue army.

Reds Suffer Marine Losses.

Though with a big tactical victory on land in sight, the red forces have suffered heavily by their attack on Boston by sea. Early today two "battleships" of the reds and five torpedo boats were picked up by the searchlights of Point Allerton coming up rapidly from the southeast. Immediately the six-inch guns of Sanders and Pope batteries and the twelve-inch guns of the Ripley battery opened fire, as did Fort Andrews on Peddocks island. When the firing had ceased, five torpedo boats were theoretically sunk and both battleships were put out of business, even if able to limp out of the way. Fort Andrews was presumably firing 1,040 pound projectiles.

While this action was in progress the outposts of Fort Revere at Strawberry hill had detected four boats creeping in toward Nantasket beach.

The forces from the fort were soon massed on the shore, pouring a hot fire into the four boats. Very soon the boats were headed in the opposite direction and it was judged that they had suffered a heavy loss before they were repulsed.

Later in the morning, coast artillery men of the Eighty-Second company successfully drove off an invading force that attempted to land in small boats from three transports.

The invaders reached the shore, but a heavy fire was poured in on them from all sides, so that they were quickly dislodged and forced to put to sea again. The transports then withdrew to the north.

HENEY NAMED BY DEMOCRATS

To Make Race for District Attorney's Office

IN THE CITY OF THE GOLDEN GATE

Vacant Spot on the Ballot Is Well Worked.

It Is Held That the Election of Heney Will Mean the Continuation of the Fight on Graft in Frisco and That His Defeat Will Be Taken To Mean the End of the Long-Drawn-Out Campaign.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—The climax of the fight on graft in San Francisco will center this fall about the office of district attorney and the opposing candidates will be Francis J. Heney, the graft prosecutor, who will run on the Democratic ticket, and Charles Fickert, a young lawyer, the Republican candidate.

As a result of the direct primary, Heney was nominated to be the Democratic candidate, while Fickert was named by the Republicans. The Democrats had selected no candidate, but had left a blank space on the ballot for district attorney so that the name of Heney, running independently, might be written in by the voters. The total count shows that Heney was nominated.

The district attorneyship will be the big fight of the coming municipal elections, as the graft prosecutors allege the fight will be stopped unless Heney is elected.

Normally a Republican.

Heney, who is normally a Republican, has never been the district attorney of San Francisco, but was retained by Rudolph Spreckels and other reform millionaires to assist District Attorney Langdon in the fight on the grafters. He has been successful, but has never had the real powers of the office. The Republican party refused to endorse Heney for election and his friends persuaded him to become an independent candidate. As he could not run in the direct primaries on two tickets, the Democrats, who favored his nomination, failed to nominate a candidate and simply wrote in his name on the ballot, ensuring him sufficient ballots to nominate.

Fickert, his Republican opponent, is a young lawyer of little experience. The fight is certain to be hot as the grafters are said to have raised an immense fund with which to fight Heney.

William Crocker, the organization Republican candidate, was nominated for mayor by a small majority. The organization Democratic candidate, T. B. Leland, was nominated for mayor over Ralph McLaren, Independent. P. H. McCarthy is the Union Labor nominee for mayor.

Wouldn't Marry Him.

Ravenna, O., Aug. 19.—Guiseppe Rizzo, twenty-six, shot Angela Catalano, nineteen, this morning, because she refused to marry him afterr he followed her all the way from Italy.

THE FARMERS GETTING RICH

They Add Billions to Their Wealth During Year.

ANNUAL REPORT IS MADE PUBLIC

Secretary of Agriculture Gives Some Statistics.

The Farmers' Products Reach About Four Times the Value of the Mines, Including Mineral Oils and Precious Metals—Indian Corn Is the Greatest of All Crops—Some Interesting Facts as to the Crops.

Washington, Aug. 19.—It used to be "lo, the poor farmer," now it's "Oh, the plutocratic agriculturalists."

Billions upon billions the farmer has again piled up his wealth, says Secretary of Agriculture Wilson in his annual report, made public Wednesday. In the crop report for the year of 1908 the total valuation of farm products was $7,778,000,000, the biggest in the world's history, as the secretary suggests.

"While these figures contain some duplication," Wilson explains, "on the other hand they do not contain some important items of wealth production and the fact remains that the unthinkable amount of seven and three-fourths billions of dollars of wealth have been produced by farmers this year for national sustenance and for export to the craving millions of foreign nations.

"It is a real, tangible wealth, as it exists at the time it leaves the hands of the producers. It is about four times the value of the products of the mines, including mineral oils and precious metals.

Breaks All Records.

"The farm value of farm products this year is $229,000,000 above the value for 1907 and $3,061,000,000 above the census amount for 1899. During the last ten years the wealth production of the farms of this country has exceeded the following fabulous amount—$60,000,000,000.

"Greatest of all crops is Indian corn, the priceless gift of the Indian. The value of the crop almost surpassed belief. It is $1,615,000,000. This wealth that has grown out of the soil in four months of rain and sunshine and some drought, too, is enough to pay for the Panama canal and fifty battleships.

For the First Time.

"For the first time in the history of the country's agriculture wealth, the value of the corn crop, including the seed, has apparently exceeded the value of the hay crop $621,000,000, which has heretofore held second place for a long series of years.

"Wheat is 1.5 per cent. above the five-year average in production and 23.3 per cent. above that average in total value. The value was $620,000,000, which was never approached nearer than $66,000,000.

"The value of the farm products of the dairy cow are getting closer and closer to $800,000,000, and the eggs and poultry produced on the farm are worth as much as the cotton crop, seed included, or the hay crop, or the wheat crop."

An Auto Mishap.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Robert Travisa, of Cleveland, was badly injured early this morning, when the automobile of George Van Camp, vice president of the Van Camp Packing company, driven by Mr. Van Camp, ran across the sidewalk and dashed into the side of a house at Twenty-Second and Pennsylvania streets. Mr. and Mrs. Travisa together with Mr. Van Camp with whom they were going home to spend the night, were thrown out of the machine, the front of which was wrecked.

To Chicago Americans.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 19.—Chester M. Waite, Springfield, outfielder, has been sold to the Chicago Americans. Waite is to join the White Sox September 15, with John Collins, the Springfield first baseman, whose sale to the same club, was announced a few days ago. Waite bats at 320 and is a fast fielder.

Crushed to Death.

Sterling Ill., Aug. 19.—Two section hands were crushed to death and three others were seriously injured at Albany, Ill., today when a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train was wrecked by a broken journal.

THE STOCK COMPANY WILL GO ON THE ROAD

Company of Local Amateurs in One-Night Stands.

Announcement has been made by Walter M. Ebel that Saturday will witness the last performance of the stock company at the Marion Family theater. This organization, composed of amateurs, has for several weeks, under the direction of Mr. Ebel, produced some very worthy plays, reviving the old favorites, as well as playing a series of dramas written by Mr. Ebel. The company closes Saturday, but opens next week in a series of one-night stands, playing "A Peculiar Coward," one of the best plays Mr. Ebel has written.

During the remainder of the week, by special request, with a big Saturday matinee for the children, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be repeated. New singing and dancing specialties will be introduced by the various members of the cast, and this production of America's oldest and most popular drama is one of the most satisfactory of any that this company has attempted. The play will be well staged and acted. As the company is on the last three days of its engagement, it is more than likely that the attendance, as a sort of farewell appreciation will be large.

SUPERVISORS ARE SELECTED

Those Who Will Act in Ohio Are Named.

THEY MUST STEER CLEAR OF POLITICS

President Announces More Census Appointments.

Taft Instructs Secretary Nagel and the Census Director To Warn Supervisors and Enumerators That They Must Not Take Any Part in Politics Under Penalty of Dismissal—What Taft Said.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 16.—President Taft has announced additional supervisors of the census, including selections in the following census districts of Ohio:

Second district, Frank P. Richter; Third, Joshua Edward Russell; Fourth, John Henry Schrider; Fifth, Stacey A. Mitchell; Sixth, Harry B. Weaver; Seventh, Core S. Ireland; Eighth, Robert James West; Ninth, John W. Kern, Jr.; Tenth, Tiffin Gilmore; Eleventh, John E. Todd; Thirteenth, Perry S. Williams; Fourteenth, Sherman M. Granger; Fifteenth, Charles Delmer Simeral; Sixteenth, Peter C. Given; Seventeenth, John P. Jones; Eighteenth, Charles Wesley Wickline.

In a letter to Secretary Nagel of the department of commerce and labor, President Taft served notice that any man engaged in the taking of the thirteenth census of the United States who engages in politics in any way will immediately be dismissed from the service. Outside of casting their votes the president believes that census supervisors and enumerators should keep clear of anything that savors of politics, national or state. The president orders that the secretary of commerce and labor and the director of the census embody in the regulations governing the taking of the census the rule so forcibly laid down in his letter. Mr. Taft says that in appointing census supervisors it has been found necessary to select men recommended by senators and congressmen in their districts. He says he realizes that this method of selection might easily be perverted to political purposes, and it is to take the census out of politics, so far as the actual work is concerned, that he has explicitly expressed his desires as to the regulations.

What Taft Said.

President Taft has told the representatives and senators who have urged various men for census places that he would insist that no active partisan should be named, and that no attempt should be made to build up a political machine in any state or district through the distribution of the census patronage. The president says:

"The taking of the census involves the appointment of some 300 supervisors, who in turn are to appoint many times that number of enumerators. Generally there is a supervisor for each congressional district. It has been found to be the quickest and best means of selecting suitable supervisors to consult the congressmen and senators as to competent candidates for their respective districts and states. This system can easily be perverted to political purposes if the supervisors are not forbidden to use it as an instrument for influencing local and general elections and primaries in the interest of particular candidates or parties.

"I therefore order that in the preparation of the regulations for the taking of the census you and the director of the census embody therein a provision that any supervisor or enumerator who uses his influence with his subordinates or colleagues to assist any party or any candidate in a primary or general election, or who takes any part, other than merely casting his vote, in politics, national or local, either by service upon a political committee, by public addresses, by the solicitation of votes, or otherwise, shall at once be dismissed from the service."

NEGRO HANGED AND RIDDLED WITH SHOT

Makes Mistake of Bringing Suit Against White Man.

Monroe, La., Aug. 16 News was received here of the lynching of a negro near Doss, in Moorehouse parish. The negro was hanged from a tree by the roadside, near his home, and his body riddled with bullets. Considerable ill feeling is said to have been entertained against him because he brought suit against a white resident of that community who killed a cow belonging to the negro.

Women are much more particular about references for their servants than for their friends.

LOSES HIS LIFE IN THE RAPIDS

Youth's Gallant but Futile Battle in Niagara River.

IS CAUGHT BY DEADLY CURRENT

Turns Down Stream and Begins Great Battle.

Realizes That He Is Beyond Other Help Than That Which He Is Able To Give Himself and Does His Utmost—Swims Hundred Yards Further Than the Famous English Swimmer, Captain Webb.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Aug. 17.—After a great battle with the turbulent waters of Niagara river, August Sporer, 18, of this city, went to his death in Whirlpool rapids.

With three boys Sporer went for a swim in the river at the former "Maid of the Mist" landing. He struck out at once for the middle of the stream and then turned toward the bridges. His companions called to him to turn back, for the current is very swift at that point, but he kept on down stream and was caught in the great sweep. The boy struggled for a time against the current, but to no avail. Then, realizing that he was beyond human help and was to be carried through the rapids, which took the life of Captain Webb and which have resisted every unaided human effort at passage, he deliberately turned down stream and began a grim fight for life.

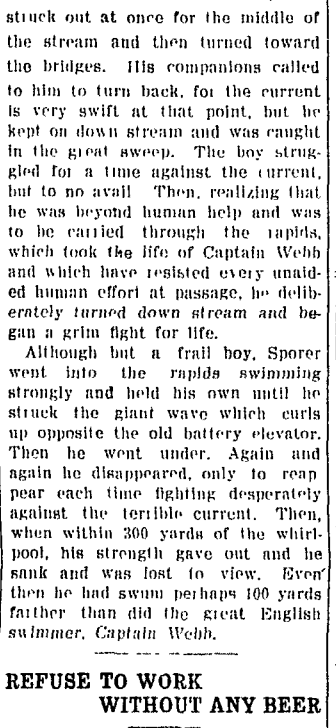
Although but a frail boy, Sporer went into the rapids swimming strongly and held his own until he struck the giant wave which curls up opposite the old battery elevator. Then he went under. Again and again he disappeared, only to reappear each time fighting desperately against the terrible current. Then, when within 300 yards of the whirlpool, his strength gave out and he sank and was lost to view. Even then he had swum perhaps 100 yards farther than did the great English swimmer, Captain Webb.

REFUSE TO WORK WITHOUT ANY BEER

$75,000 Worth of Checks Cashed When Beer Is Obtained.

Gary, Ind., Aug. 16.—Six hundred steel workers, employed by the United States Steel corporation have quit work because they cannot buy beer at Gary. The steel company reported today that on the last pay day $75,000 worth of pay checks given to workmen employed at the mills were cashed in South Chicago where beer may be obtained. The foreigners employed at the plant who are still at work are clamoring for beer and say they will not live in a place where they can not drink when they please.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER WHO IS SILENT ON PARTY CONFERENCE



Democrats all over the country are interested in the Democratic conference which is to take place at Saratoga on September 9. The announced purpose of the conference is the rehabilitation of the party in the Empire state. The call sets forth a hope of uniting the party so that it will be a militant force in the next state campaign. There are various factional rumors as to what the attitude of the conferees will be toward William J. Conners, the state chairman, or what his attitude will be toward the conference. Mr. Conners so far has remained silent on the subject.

VICTIM OF ROCHESTER CEMETERY FIEND, HER HOME AND SCENES OF THE CRIME

WHERE BODY WAS FOUND
ANNA CATHERINE SCHUMACHER. (GIRL IN WHITE COAT)
THE SCHUMACHER HOME
PUMP HOUSE WHERE GIRL WAS STRANGLED

The murder of Anna Schumacher in a Rochester cemetery has attracted widespread attention and set the people of the entire northern section of New York sternly against tramps and vagrants because of the fiendish nature of the crime. The little girl—she was seventeen years old, but considerably under size—went to the cemetery to place flowers on her father's grave. When she did not return at evening her relatives began a search for her, which resulted after forty-eight hours in the discovery of her body in a shallow grave in a desolate and unfrequented spot outside the Holy Sepulcher cemetery. The girl had been attacked, beaten and strangled and evidently had fought desperately for her life. She probably met her death in an abandoned shanty near where the body was found, for there were evidences of a desperate struggle having taken place in and around the old house. The first clew the police obtained was a spade the murderer had used in hastily burying the body after dragging it to a hole that hunters had dug in search of woodchucks. The accompanying portrait of the girl is the first authentic likeness of her that has been published. It was taken a few days before her death and shows her sitting with two of her girl friends. The police believe the girl was murdered by a tramp, for many women had complained of being followed by rough looking men when they visited the graveyard.

CRIME TO SPEND MONEY ABROAD

That's View Taken by Customs Officials,

ACCORDING TO IRATE PASSENGER

Collector Loeb's Regime Is Far Too Strict.

Some Incidents Where the Collectors Have Gone Out of Their Way To Be Officious—Carrying One's Overcoat on His Arm Means the Payment of Duty—Eat Your Chocolates Before Landing.

New York, Aug. 16.—The strictness of the customs officials under Collector Loeb former secretary to President Roosevelt, is causing much protest from passengers arriving on Atlantic liners.

"You would think it a crime to go abroad and spend some of your money, judging from the indignities to which you are subjected at the custom-house," declared an irate passenger today, and in this he voiced the sentiment of thousands of travelers returning from Europe.

Captain Thomas Turne, of the Lusitania, left his ship last night with his niece to visit some friends. The girl carried a half pound of chocolates, and was eating them when held up by the gateman and told she could not land until she had paid the duty on the candy. He took the candy away. Later the officials realized that a mistake had been made and returned the candy with a note of apology.

On Silk Handkerchief.

One of the passengers on the same liner had a silk handkerchief sticking out of a pocket of his coat. He was not allowed to leave the pier until he got the custom-house's stamp on the handkerchief.

One of the officers of the liner Furnessia, coming home to pay a visit, carried an overcoat over his arm, as the evening was cool. He was forced to give a lengthy account of his proceedings and a fight between the officer and the watchman was averted only by the arrival of other officers, who told the officer to put the overcoat on. Then the watchman let him pass without further molestation.

The captain of one liner ordered some shoes in Liverpool and ordered them sent to him in Gibraltar. Instead they were sent to him in New York and he had to pay fifty per cent duty on them though he never intended wearing them on shore.

The hardened crook delights in sitting upon soft people.

FAMOUS CASE COMPROMISED

Monte Carlo Gambling Matter in Indiana

REACHES ITS END IN THE COURTS.

The Various Gamblers Arrested Plead Guilty.

Surrender Right to Possession of Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Gambling Paraphernalia Which Has Been Held in Storage Since Raids Made on French Lick and West Baden Gambling Places.

Indianapolis, Aug. 16. The famous Indiana Monte Carlo gambling case by which the state attempted to end gambling at French Lick and West Baden has been compromised. The time-keepers have agreed to plead guilty and surrender possession of thousands of dollars worth of gambling equipment which [illegible] now holds. The [illegible] resorts was ordered by Governor Hanley three years ago. Lots of gambling paraphernalia were seized and taken to Paoli the county seat of Orange county and stored in a safe. For the last [illegible] years the cases have remained on the docket without progress and several hundred dollars a month storage.

Governor Marshall recently ordered a [illegible] General James Bingham to end the [illegible] either by compromise or by dismissing them. Bingham arranged to have the heads of the gambling-houses plead guilty and nolle prossed the cases against the employes who were arrested. The gambling concerns consented to the destruction of the goods.

The method of destroying the property will be decided upon by the sheriff of Orange county. Governor Marshall advised a bonfire and the plan will likely be followed.

SIX MEN ARE INJURED TODAY

By Explosion of Natural Gas in a Storage House.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 16.—Six men were injured, at least two fatally, in a natural gas explosion at the plant of the Wirick Storage company on east Twelfth street. The entire front of the four-story building was blown out, and the flames, which quickly developed, spread to the Vendome and Walnut boarding-houses on Walnut avenue and a saloon adjoining the storage house on each side. Pedestrians were thrown to the ground by the force of the explosion.

The fatally injured are J. W. Montgomery and Edward Dunn, employes of the storage company.

Wright Brothers Are Prepared To Furnish Them.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Naval officers have been informed by the Wright brothers that they will undertake to provided aeroplanes for the navy if the call is made for them. The recommendation of the bureau of equipment, now being considered by the secretary of the navy, provides for two aeroplanes capable of arising from and alighting on the water and having proved ability to fly for five hours. The Wrights feel confident that they can deliver the goods if the navy gives them the contract.

Great Gasser Struck.

Gallipolis, O., Aug. 17.—A gas well with a pressure of 1,000,000 feet was struck at Bidwell last night at a depth of 1,000 feet. This is the biggest gas well ever struck in this section of Ohio.

THE EARTHQUAKE DEAD ARE MANY

Thirty-Five Dead Bodies Have Been Recovered.

IT IS BELIEVED LIST WILL GO TO HUNDREDS

As Result of Earth Tremors in Japan.

Buildings to the Number of 1,208 Are Demolished and 2,418 Are Partially Wrecked—A Mountain Emits Smoke and Then Its Summit Crumbles and Disappears in Immense Crater.

Tokyo, Aug. 16.—The death list is steadily being increased as returns of Saturday's disastrous earthquake in central Japan come in, and it is now believed that fully 150 persons were either killed by falling walls or drowned by the overflowing of the Hilda river.

Reports are still meager, and as much of the affected territory was thickly populated it is not improbable that deaths will reach appalling figures.

The Shiga and Gifu prefectures have suffered the worst. Nagoya, on the island of Hondo, and Ozaka, in Gifu, have been wrecked. The overflow of the Hild river destroyed hundreds of acres of cultivated lands.

Up to a late hour thirty-five bodies have been recovered, while hundreds of injured are filling the improvised hospitals which have been established by an army corps rushed to the rescue. It is declared in all 1,208 buildings were wrecked by the earthquake, while 2,418 were partially wrecked.

The mountain Ibuki, a short distance west of Fifu, emitted smoke in the early stages of the earthquake, and then collapsed with a thunderous roar. The formation of the mountain was completely changed. Slight damage was done at Nagoya, to the southward of Gifu, and neighboring villages.

Allegation Against Bride.

Bellefontaine, O., Aug. 16. — Mrs. French Wilgus, formerly Miss Lenola Hand of Lakeview, a bride, was arrested here, charged with larceny by Edgar Hamburger of Dayton. He alleges that less than a year ago the defendant secured a $300 judgment against him under false pretenses. Wilgus gave bond for $700 for her appearance in court.

Canoe Upset.

Upper Sandusky, O., Aug. 16.—When a canoe upset in which Fred Pagnard, 16, of this city, and Grover Leith, 20, of Galion, were boating on Sandusky river, the former was drowned. The latter clung to the boat and was rescued by a launch. Pagnard's body has not been recovered.

IOWA SENATOR HAILED AS THE LEADER IN 1912

Recognized by thousands of his constituents as the leader of the progressive Republican faction in the senate, Senator A. B. Cummins, of Iowa, is being hailed as the possible standard bearer of his party in 1912. When the senator gave out his statement in Chicago practically throwing down the gauntlet to the high tariff forces he was reported as intimating that he would not be averse to accepting the nomination for president, although he expressed complete confidence in President Taft's willingness to carry out party pledges. He declared, however, the tariff would never again be a party issue and that every state and congressional convention between now and the next Republican national convention would be asked to adopt tacit pledges and demands for tariff reduction.

SEWED UP AND SENT ON HIS WAY

Is Man Trying Suicide Enroute from Des Moines to Atlantic City.

Columbus, O., Aug. 16.—L. Ginsberg, a clothing dealer of Des Moines, Iowa, who, becoming suddenly demented, cut his throat Sunday night aboard an eastbound Pennsylvania train was today discharged from the Protestant hospital where he had been rushed and continued his journey.

Mr. Ginsberg and his wife were on their way to Atlantic City. Excusing himself to his wife and J. Hill, a freind, who were seated in the parlor car, he went to the toilet room. A few moments later they heard his screams.

The porter forced the door open and Ginsberg was found on the floor with the blood streaming from a two and one-half inch gash in the neck.

Mrs. Ginsberg collapsed when the hospital was reached and she took required medical attention.

THE LUCANIA IS FIRESWEPT

Cunard Liner Badly Damaged at Her Dock in Liverpool.

Liverpool, Aug. 16.—Fire seriously damaged the Cunard liner Lucania at the Huskisson dock here, the big vessel being gutted from her funnels forward. The firemen of the vessel, with two powerful motor engines, turned out at the first alarm and found the first saloon burning fiercely from end to end. Despite all their efforts the flames gradually worked forward until they reached the steerage, consuming every particle of the woodwork there, and then played havoc with the forehold.

It was finally decided to flood the vessel by admitting water into her from the dock. Soon she heeled over and her funnels came in contact with the cranes on the dock and were badly damaged. A fleet of tugs was then brought into requisition and pulled the liner upright and held her until she settled firmly on the mud bottom.

WOMAN IS SHOT THROUGH HEART

After Attempt To Garrote Her with Rosary.

SMALL FORTUNE IN JEWELS IS TAKEN

From Lifeless Fingers of Victim of Quartet.

Everything Goes To Show That It Is the Intention of the Murderers To Cut the Woman's Body into Small Sections and Then Make Away with the Pieces—Woman Drinking with Murderers All Night.

New York, Aug. 16.—First strangled with rosary, which was the semblance of her former religion, and then shot to death as she struggled to retain her diamonds and money, Madallena Vacca, fifty, a former great beauty of the Tenderloin, was found today in her rooms in the four-story tenement house on west Twenty-Ninth street which she owned, and where she conducted a massage parlor.

Robbery is supposed to have been the motive for the crime. A fortune in rare jewels had been torn from the lifeless fingers of the woman. A little more than $140 in small bills were scattered about the disordered room, showing that the woman had fought desperately to retain the money. A bank book at her side showed she had $15,000 in a savings bank.

Deeds to valuable property in New York indicated she had prospered much.

People who live in the house declare the woman had been with four men all night, drinking champagne in great quantities. The men, inspired by drink, had evidently planned to murder her and cut her body to pieces and then secret it. Surgeon saws and chisels were found in the room. They had evidently attacked her first and seized the string of beads, about her neck, winding them together and cutting deep into the flesh of her neck as they garroted her. This proved too slow and the woman was shot through the heart.

Guiseppe Curraino, who managed the place for the woman for a number of years, has been placed under arrest, although he denies all knowledge of the crime.

Ready for Distribution.

Columbus, Aug. 17.—State Warden John C. Speaks is making ready for the distribution of a carload of little black bass in the streams and reservoirs of the state. They will be taken from the state fish hatchery at London.

WOMAN KNIFED AND STRANGLED

Foul Murder Causes Excitement in New York.

VICTIM IS A VERY PRETTY CELESTIAL

One of Belles of New York's Chinatown.

Remains Are Found in Room of a Tenement by a Detective Summoned by the Woman's Husband, Who Is Held as a Material Witness. Name of Alleged Lover of Woman Is Mentioned.

New York, Aug. 16.—The murder of Bow Kim, 21, a beautiful Chinese woman, at an early hour, caused great excitement in the local Chinatown. Bow Kim came here from San Francisco a year ago with Chin Len, 31, an Americanized Celestial. It was about 2 a. m. that Chin Len ran out of a tenement at 17 Mott street, crying his woman had been murdered. The street was immediately thrown into great excitement. A policeman and a detective hurried into the house under Len's direction, through dark hallways to a rear room on the second floor. The door was locked and the officers were about to break it in when Len pushed them aside and unlocked it himself. In a bedroom the murdered woman lay on the floor, stabbed in half a dozen places. Her slender neck was ringed with bloody finger marks, indicating a struggle with her assailant, and beside her lay a crusted hunting knife.

The police said the woman had been dead for two or three hours. On the stairs were found traces of blood and also on a door leading to the store of Yuen Chin & Company, on the ground floor. Three Chinamen there were arrested, although they denied any knowledge of the murder. Six American women, who declared themselves to be wives of Chinamen, were found in the house and arrested, but none would admit any knowledge of Bow Kim's death. In the murdered woman's room were found many business letters in Chinese, but none that gave a clew. Len declared that he had no idea who killed his wife, unless "maybe See Sing kill her. See Sing say she owe him money and he try to get it." Sing too had been in love with Bow Kim, he said. As to Sing's whereabouts he knew nothing.

Len's account of himself was that he had spent the early evening with his wife and then he had gone to 22 Mott street. Returning early in the morning he found the body on the floor. In touching it he had soiled his hands with blood, which in turn smeared the door and stairway as he hurried to the street. No formal charge has been preferred against Len, but he is held in $5,000 bail as a "material witness."

CHINESE MINISTER WHOSE RECALL CAUSES SURPRISE

Although the recall of Wu Ting Fang has been rumored for several weeks, Washington officials and diplomats were surprised when it came. The Chinese minister is now in Peru, to which country he has been credited along with the United States. It is Dr. Wu's second recall from the United States, the first occurring when he expressed sympathy for this country in the Boxer outbreak. Chang Yin Tang, his successor, is now deputy vice president of foreign affairs. He formerly was stationed at Madrid.

THE DEDICATION OF A NEW MAUSOLEUM

Appropriate Exercises Are Held at LaRue.

LaRue, Aug. 16.—[Special.]—About 250 people attended the dedication of the new mausoleum in the LaRue cemetery, north of town, Sunday afternoon. The exercises were opened at 2 o'clock with music by the LaRue male octet. W. E. Denman, chairman of the meeting, then made a few remarks. He was followed by Rev. J. A. Sutton, who delivered an interesting dedicatory sermon. G. E. Mouser, of Marion, gave a short address and Rev. Mr. Sutton led in prayer. J. H. Ehrenfried, of Tiffin, through whose efforts the mausoleum was built, closed the program with a pleasing talk. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. E. Osborn. Several selections of music were rendered by the octet throughout the program.

The mausoleum is a handsome cement structure, twenty-nine by fifty-four feet in dimensions. The cost was about $14,000. It is large enough to contain 136 bodies and is arranged with four tiers on each side. Each burial space will cost $100. The remains of Robert Benson, who died May 25, already lie within the vault.

GAS ENGINES FOR THE BATTLESHIPS

They Are a Possibility of the Near Future.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The possibility of the gas engine replacing the ordinary stationary engine now in use for the propulsion of the battleships is foreshadowed in a report to the bureau of steam engineering of the navy by Captain W. W. White and Lieutenant J. Robinson. Both of these officers have been extensive investigation and report marked progress in the construction of the gas engine on land. Another stage of development will bring them into use for ocean travel and will mean the elimination of steam engines and boilers and heavy machinery. This will mean heavier armament and greater fighting power for battleships.

SAVES YOUNGSTERS FROM SURE DEATH

Picks Two Tots Off the Track from the Pilot.

Wellston, O., Aug. 16.—Charles Carpenter, fireman on a Detroit, Toledo & Ironton switch engine, rescued Pearl and Anthony Sourds, aged two and three years, from the jaws of death today. While running slowly Carpenter noticed the two tots in the middle of the track. He dashed out on the running board and, leaning from the pilot, caught the youngsters while the engine skidded past the spot.

RAILROAD.

Erie passenger, No. 8, struck and killed a Swede at Hepburn Tuesday. Engineer Ray Dickerson, who was at the throttle noticed the man sitting on the track. He immediately blew the whistle several blasts. The man deliberately arose and faced the fast approaching engine, making no effort to get out of its way. He was hurled about ninety feet into a field near the right-of-way. The engine and train crew rushed to the man's aid, as soon as the passenger could be stopped, but he was dead. It was clearly a case of suicide and death must have been practically instantaneous. The same man was in the local yards, Sunday, and stated that he was on his way to Dakota. Just how he happened to be at Hepburn is not known. He had nothing on his person by which to identify him.

The excursion of the Gaylor-Keefer Land company, of Chicago, to New Mexico left, Tuesday, over the Erie for the company's tract in New Mexico. The party is composed chiefly of Richwood people. William Sifritt, of this city, is the district agent for the company and is personally in charge of the trip.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY HEAVY RAIN

Many Trains Are Delayed by Washouts.

TELEGRAPH WIRES OUT OF SERVICE

Heavy Damage Is Also Done by Lightning.

Telegraph and Telephone Communication Cut Off for Hours and Train Service Is Deranged in the Northern and Western Sections of Ohio. Lightning Fires Valuable Property at Findlay.

Columbus, O., Aug. 16.—The severe rains Sunday caused much damage to railroads, telephone and telegraph companies operating west and north of Columbus. The heavy exucrsion crowds over the C., A. & C. and the B. & O. railroads were held up for many hours by washouts on the lines. A big washout on the B. & O. near Newark caused a complete tieup of that system running north of Columbus. Many yards of track were washed away by a cloudburst. Former Councilman Frank Meneally, a glass blower, was drowned in Log Pond run at Newark while trying to save his property from damage by the flood.

At Marysville lightning struck the residence of John Heck, and Mrs. Heck, who was sitting on the porch, was badly stunned. The house was damaged. About two miles of telephone poles were struck and knocked down, south of Marysville, badly crippling the telephone service.

From reports of the railroad, telephone and telegraph companies the storm centered over the northern and western sections of the state, where numerous cloudbursts were recorded. The eastern and southern counties, while receiving heavy rains, did not report much damage done.

Destructive Electrical Storm.

Findlay, O., Aug. 16.—Losses aggregating more than $75,000 resulted here in the most destructive electrical storm that has ever visited Findlay. Numerous buildings were struck by lightning throughout the county, the Fassett planing mill of this city also burning. The loss on the mill is placed at $28,000, on which there was no insurance. A 35,000-barrel tank of oil of the Ohio Oil company was struck and is still burning. The loss will be about $25,000.

Large Barns Destroyed.

Hillsboro, O., Aug. 16.—Two large barns, probably the finest in Highland county, located 20 miles apart, were struck by lightning and destroyed. Reece Hopkins, near Dodsonville, lost a building, this season's wheat crop, many implements and four valuable horses. F. D. West, near Rainsboro, lost a building and all contents with the exception of his horses, which were rescued in time.

MRS. JOHN MILLIGAN DIES AT PROSPECT

Death Is the Result of a Very Long Illness.

Prospect, Aug. 16.—[Specil.]—Mrs. Almira Milligan, aged seventy-seven years, died at her home four miles south of here, this morning about 11 o'clock. Her death was caused by complications and old age. She had been ill for some time, but had been confined to her bed only for the past six days. She was the widow of John Milligan, who was killed near his home in a runaway two years ago Monday. She was a kind woman and was held in high esteem.

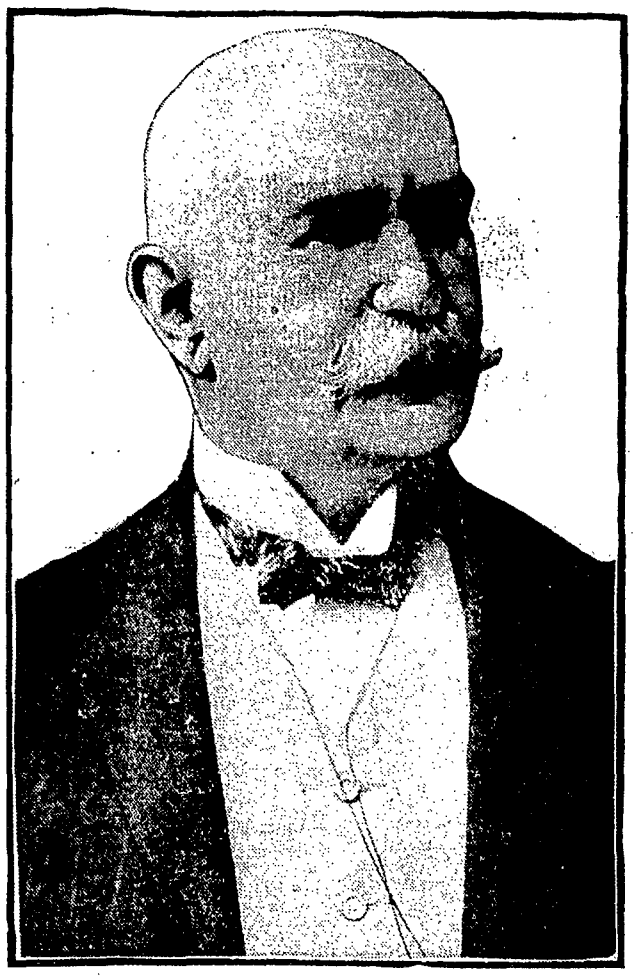
COUNT ZEPPELIN, NOTED AERONAUT, WHO UNDERWENT SURGICAL ORDEAL



Count Ferdinand Zeppelin, the world-famous German aeronaut, who has been ill following an operation for an abscess of the neck, made his first flight in a balloon while observing the operations of the civil war in this country for Germany. The balloon was sent up within the union lines. Zeppelin thereupon took up the study of aeronautics in earnest, his life dream being to construct a dirigible balloon that would carry several persons and would be practical in warfare. He soon spent his private fortune of $500,000, but kept on with his experiments, and as long ago as 1900 succeeded in making some remarkable flights. His triumph came last May, when he traveled 850 miles in thirty-seven hours, his huge ship performing perfectly at high attitudes and in many conflicting air currents. His present airship will carry twenty-five persons and is equipped with wireless telegraph apparatus and a searchlight.

QUESTION CAUSES THE OFFICIALS TO WRANGLE

"What Is Wine?" Is the Cause of a Contention.

THE HOLDING OF PURE FOOD BOARD

It Is Possible That Fermented Grape Juice to Which Sugar Is Added Must Be Labeled "Imitation Wine"—Will Hit the Winemakers of the Country Hard.

Washington, Aug. 16.—"What is wine?" has come to the fore and promises to cause about as much wrangling as did the effort to get a definition of the word "whisky."

While the official decision has not been announced by the agricultural department, there is an unofficial report in circulation that the pure food board holds that fermented grape juice to which sugar and water has been added is "imitation wine" and must be so branded.

Such a decision would hit the wine manufacturers of the Lake Erie and other northern regions hard, since they have always maintained that it was necessary to add the sugar and water in order to overcome the acidity of the grapes raised in those sections. Dr. Wiley takes issue with this.

Futhermore, the chief chemist insists that it is the practice of some manufacturers to use the skins and seed of grapes that remain in the press after extracting of the first juice, in the manufacture of another "wine." Sugar and water is added to this, and fermentation takes place. Wiley maintains that this is merely fermented sugar and not fermented grape juice. The decision of the board, unless reversed, will force the producers of many popular brands to label their wines "imitation." An appeal from the board's decision will be made by wine manufacturers.

THE MODERN WOODMEN GATHER AT PROSPECT

A Tri-County Picnic Is Held in Gast's Grove.

THE ATTENDANCE IS EXTREMELY LARGE

About 2,000 Members of the Order and Their Friends Enjoy Pleasures Provided for the Day—Addresses Are Made and Instrumental and Vocal Music Enjoyed.

The tri-county picnic of the Modern Woodmen held in the Gast grove at Prospect, Friday, was a success. About 2,000 people, including the members of the orders in Union, Delaware and Marion counties and their friends were present. The picnickers began gathering at the grove in the early morning and after a large crowd had gathered, the festivities began.

The welcome address was made by C. M. Dix, of Prospect W. H. Clevenger, of Columbus, made the response. A short program of selections was rendered by the Prospect band, after which dinner was enjoyed in the grove.

The afternoon gathering was much larger, many waiting until after the noon meal before attending. The afternoon program contained many entertaining features for both old and young. In the sporting line a baseball game between a team representing the lodges of Marion and Prospect and a team representing the Delaware and Richwood lodges was the feature. The contest was a snappy one for players who have not handled a ball for years and like most amateur games it had its entertaining incidents. The game resulted in a victory for the team representing Delaware and Richwood, the score being thirteen to seven.

For those interested in lodge work and drilling, the degree team of Camp Chase, of Columbus, gave a drill which was appreciated. This team is considered one of the best drilled in the country and the work was of a high standard. The principal address of the afternoon was delivered by W. T. Copeland, of Lima. Music was furnished by the Prospect band and vocal selections were contributed by a trio composed of Mrs. Fannie McDonald, Misses Louise and Marguerite Wottring, while several pleasing vocal solos were rendered by Miss Millicent Biggerstaff, who possesses a rich soprano voice.

After the evening meal, dancing, music and short addresses by various members of the different orders constituted the program. Several features of the program were omitted on account of the shortness of time, but there were some things on the ground that were not on the program and which afforded considerable entertainment. The tent in which was exhibited a two-headed calf was crowded.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. TAFT AT BEVERLY AND VIEWS AT THE SUMMER CAPITAL

TAFT'S FIRST TRIP TO BEVERLY OFFICE

EXECUTIVE OFFICES BEVERLY
TAFT'S BEVERLY HOME

President Taft carries his penchant for system into his vacation, and the routine of each day is almost the same. Every morning he plays golf. After luncheon he attends to a little official business, and later takes a motor ride with Mrs. Taft. His companion at golf usually is John Hays Hammond, who is the head man in the summer golf cabinet. The president objects to a gallery when he plays his favorite game, and the Myopia links are carefully guarded from intruders by a force of secret service men. At the executive offices in Beverly quarters are set aside for a horde of newspaper correspondents, and the president indulges in a hand-shaking bee every time he visits the offices. When he made his first trip to the office a crowd of Beverly townsfolk greeted him all along the way. One of these snapshots was taken on that occasion. From day to day the president revises the itinerary of his trip through the West and South. He has added Milwaukee to the itinerary, and in order to do this it was necessary for him to cut out Madison, the home of Senator La Follette. The presidential party will arrive in Milwaukee at 5 o'clock a. m. September 17, and remain until 11:10 a. m., leaving then for Lacrosse. Mr. Taft has also included Baton Rouge in his trip down the Mississippi river.

WILBERT E. STILLWELL HELD TO GRAND JURY

He Gives a Bond of $500 for His Appearance.

The hearing of Wilbert E. Stillwell on a charge of kidnaping Tillie Perdue, a two-year-old girl, in Wyandot county in 1887, was held before Squire Robert E. Carter, in the probate court-room at Upper Sandusky, Friday. The defendant was represented by Attorney John H. Clark, while Attorney A. E. Walton represented the prosecution.

The attorney for the prosecution asked that the affidavit be changed so as to include Mrs. Perdue, whom he claimed was abducted. Attorney Clark held that it would be improper to join offenses in one affidavit, and could see no reason for the changes at the last moment when there had been plenty of time previously to arrange such matters. Squire Robert E. Carter held that making two counts would not be proper, but the testimony pertaining to the disappearance of the wife would be admitted without amending the affidavit. Ten witnesses were subpoenaed by the prosecution. The most important of these was Lon Oldfield, who was employed at the Perdue home at the time and drove the Perdue woman and the child to Upper Sandusky. At the conclusion of the testimony attorney for the defense made a motion to have the case dismissed. This was overruled and the defendant then waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $500, the names of his bondsmen being withheld.

Well Known Here.

R. T. Purdue, who has filed charges against Wilbert Stillwell for kidnaping his three-year-old daughter in 1887, is well known in this city. Mr. Purdue was formerly employed by the Erie as a road man in the train service. During that time he made many friends. Most of the time he ran as a brakeman between Huntington and Chicago.

FORTUNE COMES AS RESULT OF TRAGEDY

William F. Zwilling Draws a Farm in Lottery.

IS IN THE DRAWING AT COEUR D'ALENE

Zwilling Goes West To Investigate the Death of His Brother and the Disappearance of a Diamond Ring in Montana—Enters Land Drawing and Proves Successful.

Tragedy curiously brought fortune to William F. Zwilling, of this city, who was one of the winners in the final drawing, Saturday, at Coeur d'Alene for the government lands in the Flathead reservation.

Several months ago, Albert Zwilling, a brother of the Marion man, was killed in a steam shovel explosion in Montana. His home was in Upper Sandusky and the remains were brought to that place for interment.

A few weeks ago, William F. Zwilling, the dead man's brother, who was employed as a blacksmith for the Marion Steam Shovel company, went West to investigate as to the cause of the fatal explosion and to learn, if possible, what his brother had done with a large diamond ring. He wore the ring when he went away, but it was missing when the body was shipped back to Ohio for burial.

It is not known whether or not the Marion man located his brother's ring, but news has been received here of his rare good luck in holding the lucky number to draw one of the government claims.

After visiting the scene of his brother's death in Montana, Zwilling's Marion friends say that he continued his journey on to Idaho and registered for one of the prize land parcels.

Zwilling, it is understood, will return to Coeur d'Alene next April, when the government will turn over the land to the various winners, and will live on it the required number of years.

MRS. MARGARET RUTH DIES SATURDAY

Death Comes After a Very Long Illness.

Margaret Ruth, seventy-six years old, widow of the late Conrad Ruth, died of the infirmities of old age at her home near Beach, Saturday at 3:30 a. m. She had twice been married, her last husband dying thirteen years ago.

Mrs. Ruth was born in Germany and came to America with her parents when she was three years old. She had lived in Marion county many years. Her nearest relative is a sister, Mrs. John Boor, of Wooster.

The deceased lived on her own farm in Claridon township, her tenants being Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krauter. She had been in poor health a long time and her death was not unexpected.

STORM RAGES OVER THE ENTIRE COUNTY

Rain Falls in Torrents and Wind Is High.

HEAVIEST RAINFALL IN LOCAL HISTORY

The Electrical Display Is Wonderful. A Whirlwind Sweeps Two Streets and Does a Great Deal of Damage to Shade Trees—Wind Reaches an Alarming Velocity.

From 11 o'clock Saturday night to 9 o'clock Sunday morning, more than three inches of rain fell in Marion and vicinity. To be exact, just 3.17 inches of water came tumbling down within that length of time, the largest rainfall for that short a period in the history of the local weather bureau, according to Dr. E. H. Raffensperger, the government weatherman.

The storm prevailed over the entire county. It was one continuous performance of thunder and lightning and wind and rain.

The storm not only brought the heaviest downpour in years, but it was remarkable for the width of its scope. When it raged at it height in Marion, vivid flashes of lightning were plainly discernible ten or twelve miles distant in all directions from the city.

A peculiarity of the storm was a whirlwind, of not more than thirty seconds' duration, which passed up east Church and Center streets, Sunday morning about 8:30 o'clock. It attained alarming velocity. Limbs of large shade trees caught in its vortex were torn off and, in some instances, the shade trees were twisted in two.

The falling torrents of rain, transformed into solid sheets, were hurled with terrific force against the houses in the path of the whirlwind, apparently on all sides at the same time.

The fact that the rainfall was so heavy tended, to some extent, to keep down the destructive force of the rotary column of air, or the damage probably would have been far worse.

PETITIONS IN ERROR ARE FILED BY COURT

Men Fined by Mayor Huff Carry Cases Higher.

SEVERAL ERRORS ARE ALLEGED IN TRIALS

Al Korte, John K. Forsythe, and Charles Miller Ask Relief from the Judgments of Prospect's Mayor. Claim Law Is Not Constitutional. Common Pleas Court Notes.

Petition-in-error, all setting up the same allegations, were filed in the common pleas court by Attorney L. E. Myers, Monday afternoon, for Al Korte, John K. Forsyth and Charles Miller, Marionites, who were fined in the court of Mayor Joseph W. Huff at Prospect on charges of alleged bootlegging.

The petitions-in-error set forth that there was substantial, material and prejudicial error manifest upon the face of the judgment in each case; that, among other things, the mayor erred in allowing counsel other than the prosecuting attorney of Marion county or city solicitor of Marion or the city solicitor of Prospect to represent the state in the prosecution; that the fines in each case are excessive and the result of base passion and prejudice upon the part of the mayor; also that the statute, under which the petitioners-in-error were fined, is unconstitutional.

Three have been held at Caledonia and this is the second one held in this city. About 100 members of the two families were present and it proved to be one of the most enjoyable meetings yet held. At noon, a sumptuous picnic dinner was spread under the trees around which the large company gathered and did ample justice to the good things which had been prepared.

A short program of music and addresses followed, Colonel George B. Christian being the principal speaker.

The officers were then elected as follows: Mrs. Ella Neff, of Bucyrus, president; Mrs. Carrie Garberson, of this city, vice president; Miss Hortense Morrow, of Caledonia, secretary, and Marshall McKinstry, of this city, treasurer. The executive committee is composed of Mrs. Carrie Garberson, Miss Hortense Morrow, Mrs. Heath Garberson, Joseph McKinstry and Nellie McKinstry.

Letters were read from various absent members who reside in the West and were unable to attend.

The next meeting will be held in park the second Thursday in August, 1910.

FAREWELL GIVEN FOR MRS. C. W. HENSEL

Mrs. L. D. Zachman Is Hostess to Company.

VERY INTERESTING PROGRAM ENJOYED

The Members of the Lutheran Sewing Circle Enjoy the Hospitality of Mrs. Wesley Romoser—United Brethren Society Abandons Picnic Planned for Thursday.

The meeting of the missionary society of the Calvary Evangelical church, held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. L. D. Zachman, of south Main street, was a farewell for Mrs C. W. Hensel, who is to leave the city. Mrs. Hensel has been president of the organization four years, the period of her residence in the city. Resolutions thanking Mrs. Hensel for her untiring efforts in the work of the society and deploring the fact that she is to leave the city were adopted.

The meeting was indeed an interesting one.

The program was opened with devotional exercises led by Miss Clara Klinefelter. This was followed by a piano and violin duet by Ermal and Earl Ruhlman. During the business session, the secretary's report was read and showed that 250 calls had been made during the month. This was the source of much gratification among the members. Miss Lillian Klinefelter read a paper "Following the War-Path," which was quite interesting. Following this, another piano and violin duet was given by Misses Hilda Stone and Ethel Graham. Miss Sarah Myers read a paper which she read at a convention at West Salem a few weeks ago. The paper, "Why We Are Uninteresting to the Uninterested," was much enjoyed. A reading "Capitola" by Miss Stella Messenger was instructive. A piano duet by Misses Bessie Dowler and Ina Klinefelter was very good. Hilda Stone and Opal Staffore contributed a vocal duet. The meeting was concluded with the singing of a hymn.

AN OLD SHIPYARD FOR INDIAN CANOES

Scene of the Building of Birch Bark Craft.

NEW YORKERS FIND AN INTERESTING SPOT

Point Where the Frail Craft of the Indian Is Made for Many Centuries—Evidences of the Work in the Ancient Shipyard—A Vision from Sixteenth Century.

A party of New Yorkers hunting in the far Canadian wilds came upon an Indian shipyard where had been built and launched such craft as the voyagers use in traveling in the rivers and lakes of that region even as far as Hudson's bay. Noise of hammer and hiss of white hot bolt had never been heard in that shipyard and it had neither drydock nor high slanted and greasy ways. Hidden in the deep grass were long and wide rolls of birchbark—treasured against future need and all about were shavings of the cedar while the charred remnants of the fires used to melt and purify some of the shipbuilding material still shone black in a little pile.

Here the season before and perhaps for many seasons in succession the Indians had built their birch bark canoes. Bits of the long and pliant but tough root which the Indians pull from its shallow burial to make binding thongs were found here and there. This root when split has about the thickness of the cane used in weaving chair bottoms and the deft needlemen of the Indians make it serve to a nicety for sewing the seams of the birch bark with which their canoes are covered. From strips of cedar two inches wide and hardly more than a quarter of an inch thick are made the ribs. Over this frame is laid with nice fit the birch bark in pieces of suitable size and the joints are secured with long strips of the pliant root.

All this, however, is not sufficient to make a canoe seaworthy; the seams must be made water tight. This is accomplished with a mixture of spruce gum and bear's grease, though lard will serve nearly as well as the latter. The spruce gum is melted in a pot over an open fire and cleansed of its impurities by skimming. Then a sufficient quantity of bear's grease is added to make the mixture at a moderate temperature of about the consistency of shoemaker's wax.

The whole craft remains measurably pliant yet sufficiently rigid to be handled and carried without danger of collapse. One thing, however, the Indian looks to, that his canoe shall not grate upon sand or shingle when he lands. In fact he stops short of the shore and in shallow water leaps out into lake or stream and unloads his canoe before carrying it ashore and laying it in a shady place safe from the damaging effects of the midsummer sun.

Small canoes are built in this fashion for the use of one or two oarsmen, and with proper strengthening of materials big canoes thirty-five feet long or more are built to be paddled by ten or fifteen oarsmen and to carry great loads all about the region upon the errands of business that keep these hunters and trappers afloat much of the time so long as there is open water in that far North.

Those who came upon the Indian shipyard had the pleasure also of encountering a company of the voyagers under pleasant conditions. As the white men were at breakfast one morning they suddenly heard from far up the stream a noise as if some one were throwing every other second a gallon or so of water into the river. Then around a bend came one of the great birch bark canoes, riding high because it was lightly loaded. Its ten or twelve oarsmen at the height at which they sat could not dip their paddles deep, but they dug away with energy and rhythmic regularity, throwing obliquely behind them at each stroke a shower of foamy water that fell with the noise of a dozen little cataracts into the bosom of the stream. They passed with friendly hails and grunts, looking like a sudden vision from the sixteenth century.—New York Sun.

PRINCE JOHNSON FINDS HIS LONG-LOST SISTER

A Search Covering Several Cities Is Rewarded.

BROTHER AND SISTER AT LAST REUNITED

Johnson Feels That His Sister Is Not Dead, Although She Is Out of His Life for Thirty Years—Guided by This Feeling He Persists in Search, Brings Her Here.

After a search of several weeks at Roanoke and Alexandria, Virginia, and Baltimore, Maryland, Prince Johnson, of this city, has found his long-lost sister in Baltimore and brought her to his home in this city. Today, Mr. Johnson is one of the happiest colored men in the country.

"I had not seen her for thirty years, but she knew me just as soon as she set eyes on me," said the aged former slave in relating his experience. "None of my people, black or white, live in old Roanoke. They're all dead or gone away. When I went to Roanoke to find my sister they told me she was dead. I said that her husband might be dead, but something told me she was not dead and I just kept on looking for her."

From Roanoke Mr. Johnson went to Alexandria and there he learned that his sister had gone to Baltimore. At Baltimore he learned that his sister's son, a minister, had been there, but nobody knew his whereabouts. Clinging to the belief that fate would in some way lead him to his sister, the old colored man wandered around over the big Maryland city for days. He kept making inquiries and finally he saw a woman who knew her. His sister's husband was dead and she was destitute. Mr. Johnson lost no time in making arrangements to bring his sister to his home here. She is seventy-two years of age. Her husband, Samuel Bowlder, died a number of years ago.

HENRY C. HENSON DIES AT CALEDONIA

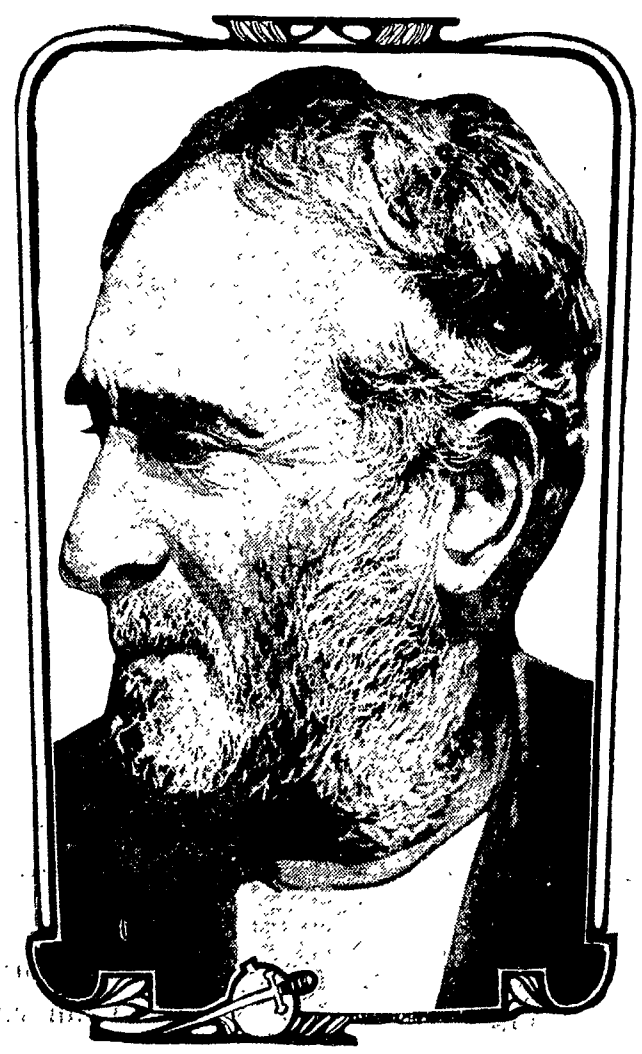
Death Follows a Second Stroke of Paralysis.

Caledonia, Aug 13.—[Special.]—Henry C Henson, a veteran of the civil war, died suddenly at his home here about 12:15 o'clock today. The deceased suffered a stroke of paralysis about two years ago. He suffered a second stroke about 9:30 o'clock this morning. Mr Henson was sixty-five years of age. He was born in Charleston, West Virginia, coming to this county shortly after the war. Until two years ago when he retired because of poor health, he was engaged in farming.

A widow and two sons, Lloyd and Clayton, of this place, are living.

A dead beat always gets more credit that he deserves.

SALVATORE ARREGO, WHOSE ARREST MAY SOLVE THE PETROSINO MURDER



Postoffice inspectors who have arrested eighteen alleged Black Hand operators in Marion and other points in Ohio believe they have the men who plotted and executed the murder of Lieutenant Petrosino, the New York detective who was slain in Palermo, Sicily, several months ago. Salvatore Arrego, who is now in the custody of the postal authorities, is believed to be the head of the band. The inspectors say these men have obtained many thousands of dollars through blackmailing operations in nearly all the large cities of the country. Their alleged victims are mainly their own countrymen. Petrosino was regarded as the arch foe of the band and was sent to Sicily to obtain evidence against the very men now under arrest. This, the postal authorities argue, is ample proof that Arrego's alleged band knows something of the plot that led to the murder of Petrosino, and they are trying to interest New York police in the case.

Ritter maintains stolid silence, except to say that he is innocent of any crime. It is probable that he will be put through another examination in a short time.

PETER EPERT ESTATE BONE OF CONTENTION

Two Administrators Named in the Probate Court.

EPERT IS MARRIED, BUT LIVES ALONE

Leaves His Wife on the Day of Marriage—Has a Son Who Is Now Twenty-Five Years of Age—Sisters of Epert Put in Claim for Estate Valued at $30,000.

Monday afternoon, in the probate court, William G. Haas, a Caledonia banker, and Jerome Ault, a prominent Claridon township farmer, were appointed administrators of the estate of Peter Epert, who died suddenly in a buggy while driving from Cardington to his home, near Beach, Saturday, July 31.

The appointment of two administrators of the estate, valued at from $25,000 to $30,000, was surrounded with much secrecy at the request of the alleged heirs and because of the peculiar history of the case.

Epert was a strange character. He lived alone on a farm of eighty acres in Claridon township. His life was that of a hermit, his relatives say.

Nearly a quarter of a century ago Epert was arrested on a paternity charge preferred by Miss Ernestine Schimpf, who then lived in Richland township. Epert was locked up over night in a cornerib and the next day he secured his liberty by marrying the girl. They were married only in name, for they never lived together.

Five years later, Epert brought an action for a divorce in the local common pleas court charging gross neglect and desertion. His wife, then the mother of a boy of about five years, filed an answer and cross-petition, in which she set up a general denial and charged the plaintiff with abandonment. She was granted a decree of divorce and custody of the child. Alimony was settled out of court, Mrs. Epert receiving $600. Since then she has lived with a bachelor brother, Julius Schimpf, five miles west of Cardington. Her son is now in his twenty-fifth year, and his interests are represented by a Columbus attorney, who consented to the appointment of Mr. Ault as one of the two administrators in a compromise of the family differences.

Peter Epert left no will. It was generally supposed that he made such an instrument, but none can be found. His three sisters, Mrs. Hen Geckley, Mrs. Eve Haas and Mrs. Elizabeth Schimpf maintain th the latter's attorney maintains th they are the only legal heirs to th estate because Peter Epert nev claimed the boy as his son, b the latter's attorney maintainst h he acknowledged the relationship the marriage.

BIG BUSINESS AND RELIGION.

By William T. Ellis.

The International Sunday-School Lesson for August 22 Is "Paul's Third Missionary Journey — The Riot at Ephesus." Acts 19:23—20:1.

Here enters a many-named figure, which stalks deathless through the centuries, like the Wandering Jew. On the present occasion he is called Demetrius, the silversmith; sometimes he is known as "Vested Interests," sometimes as "The System," sometimes as "Big Business;" always he claims special consideration from kings and church and parliament and peasant; ever he is glib to profess any faith that may serve his own interests, and always is he clever in cloaking his own specious pleas in the garb of the moment's most popular cause.

A mark of the wise man and the good citizen is ability to discern Demetrius in the garb of capitalist or labor agitator or politician. It is well to remember that he is not a patriot, but only a silversmith. Along with a wholesome trust in one's fellow men should ever go a careful skepticism concerning the motives of popular agitators. For Demetrius is the worst foe of any people at any time.

The Modern Golden Calf.

At the recent Christian Endeavor convention in St. Paul, William Jennings Bryan related how he had talked with a man concerning the subject of uniting with the church. The man at length confessed that the reason he could not become a Christian—while frankly admitting that he should do so—was that he was engaged in a business which was inconsistent with the Christian religion, and given his choice between business and religion he chose business. That is a twentieth century habit. Our times frankly defy business. We are putting it above family relationships, personal health and happiness, and above honor itself. It is not altogether an unknown thing for persons to unite with the church merely to further their own business interests.

The crude, open, and unabashed fashion in which Americans exalt business above worthier considerations has an illustration in the present discussion concerning the Chinese railway loan. Some American financiers have expressed a desire to participate to the extent of a few million dollars in a loan to the Chinese government. The officials at Washington have gone to great length to support this entirely proper claim. Yet in the few months that this subject has been under consideration the newspapers of the United States have given more space to it than they have given for eight years past to all the varied and important interests of American missions in China, although the latter represent an infinitely greater investment. Thus do we disproportionately put the dollar first. Similarly, all the tariff discussion of recent months has had as its background the shrewd and sleepless insistence of varied interests for special consideration at the hands of law-makers. Every parliament on earth knows the power of big business in demanding more than common consideration. The golden dollar is the modern golden calf.

Some Present-Day Dianas.

The popular Ephesian deity was Artemis or Diana, the goddess of life, who was worshipped with vilest debaucheries. Her great idol, which was sold in miniature to the ceaseless stream of pilgrims, thus making a most productive industry, was the principal object of interest in Ephesus; and her temple was one of the seven wonders of the world. Somewhat analogous to that ancient situation is the shrine of the Lady of Lourdes, or the Shinto shrines of Yamada, in Ise, Japan, or the Hindu temples at Benares. In all these places the commercial life of the city is interwoven with the worship and the pilgrimages. The entire population would rise up to protest against any innovation that imperiled their business.

We need not go to heathen lands to find analogies. Present-day Christians have identified religion with institutions. Our interpretation and expression of Christianity has become confused with Christianity itself. Suppose it should appear to the consciences of most Christians that organs should be abolished from the churches, or the reverse; or that all choirs should be put in vestments. What a row would immediately follow. Or, more seriously, what if the enlightened Christian conscience of today should lead the churches back to the simple meeting house of an older day? What an Ephesian riot in behalf of the churches and cathedrals would be created.

So most denominations have built up in bricks and motar expensive denominational headquarters. They not only receive, but seek entailed bequests; yet it is manifest that before many years many of the existing denominational lines must be abolished. Great mergers are coming among the churches; but see what barriers are erected by these property rights and by these professional positions. It is an open secret that the Northern Presbyterian church and the Dutch Reformed church do not unite, chiefly because the lawyers have said that the title to the immensly valuable Dutch Reformed properties would not hold valid in such a union. Likewise, the proposition that is being considered in several churches to consolidate boards is meeting with shrewd and powerful opposition from the men whose positions might be imperiled. Is not all this an exaltation of special interests above the free course of truth, and the welfare of the kingdom?

Demetrius, and Some Others.

This whole lesson hinges on the vital question of special interests cloaked by religion. Let us not rant about Ephesus, when in our own day Demetrius is flourishing in many quarters. Some of our denominations are honeycombed with interests of individuals above the welfare of the church. Bishop Hamilton told the Philadelphia Methodist ministers, at the time of their last conference, that he was shocked by their self-seeking, and he bade them go home and practice what they preach. The northern Presbyterian denomination lately took action in its highest court against the use of tobacco by its members, but it had not a word to say concerning the Demetrius of ecclesiastical-political practices that would disgrace the secular parties. In the name of the gospel that prevailed at Ephesus, the church must have new courage to cleanse herself. Christianity must be pure before it can be powerful. Only a clean church can serve or save the world. With the relentlessness of righteousness, the self-seekers and special interests must be driven from individual churches and from the denominations.

"Great Is Diana!"

The mob that Demetrius raised at Ephesus, ostensibly in behalf of the goddess Diana, cried for two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians." Luke has drawn a perfect picture of a mob—throaty, headless, and subject to the leadership of any kind of rascals. The cry in behalf of Diana was a false cry. It could be truly interpreted, "Great is our job!" Abdul Hamid raised the same cry in behalf of orthodoxy when he sought to defeat the reform party. Every pretender to the unstable Moroccan throne lifts the banner of a "holy war." Predatory interests at Washington shout themselves hoarse over the sacredness of the constitution and the judiciary. All these are but new versions of "Great is Diana of the Ephesians."

We see this ephesian mob swarming hither and thither like a hive of bees. They knew not wherefore they were come together. They were as clay in the hands of a few shrewd agitators. Stupidly, they thought that by much shouting they could prove their case; but truth is not established that way. In popular voting the devil has often had a majority. Truth is not determined at the ballot box, nor by force of arms. Truth is truth, though one must hold it against a multitude; and soon the noisy tumult of the Ephesians was forever stilled by the quiet touch of the truth of Christianity. A few months ago Dr. F. B. Meyer, of London, preached the Christian message in the ruins of this very theater where Paul's enemies rioted.

A Man Who Withstood a Mob.

"Let us call in the town clerk of Ephesus," quaintly remarks a preacher, when in family or church the discussion threatens to grow warm. For there are in every situation usually a few level-headed persons who see beneath the pretensions of the demagogues, and inquire to the inner certainties of the matter. Such was the town clerk of Ephesus, who arose and stilled the tumult, giving the sage advice: "Ye ought to be quiet and to do nothing rash." He got to the core of the matter by pointing out that Demetrius and the silversmiths, if they had a valid case, could take it to the courts. There were regular assemblies for the determination of all the matters that might be involved. The appeal was one to the majesty of law, and it was pointed by a definite warning that the crowd was in danger of being called to account for the day's uproar.

In the place of that town clerk we see standing, in many regions, brave officers of the law, who have not hesitated to face mobs in their madness, and who have offered their lives in defence of the orderly procedure of justice. For one grave shortcoming of our own times is the need pointed out by the town clerk of Ephesus, that all things should be done with respect to orderly legal procedure. Real religion is the servant, of truth first, and then of law and order. Mob law is usually contrary to God's law.

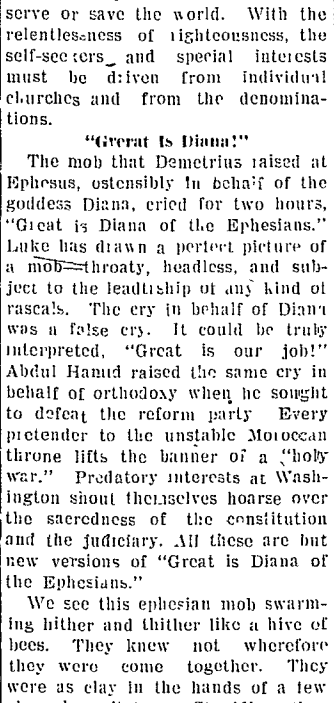
NEBRASKA SENATOR WHO DRAFTED NEW INCOME TAX BILL



SENATOR NORRIS BROWN
COPYRIGHT, 1909 BY HARRIS & EWING

Senator Norris Brown, of Nebraska, author of the income tax amendment, believes that the legislatures of three-fourths of the states will indorse the measure. Since Alabama leads the alphabetical list of states he regards its indorsement of the measure as an omen of success. Ratification by a majority of both houses of the legislatures of three-fourths of the states is necessary for the constitutional amendment which will admit of the tax. The junior senator from Nebraska is forty-six years old and a native of Iowa.

MILLIGAN HAS A PECK OF TROUBLE

He Is Arrested for Beating a Livery Bill.

After being arrested and settling a board bill, Saturday, A. M. Milligan, known to his friends as "Mike," was rearrested by Constable Benjamin Bigford, of the court of Justice Charles H Conley, Monday night. This time he was charged with beating a livery bill and the charge was preferred by James Church of this city. Milligan's father, residing in Hardin county, paid the board bill and the costs, amounting to about $19. Mrs. Anna Huffman, formerly of Marion, but now a resident of Galion, caused the young man's first arrest.

A peculiar circumstance in connection with Milligan's last arrest is that R. P. Perry, a local liveryman, intended to file an affidavit against him, but when Church had Milligan arrested, the prisoner asked to be driven to the home of his father, who again bought his son's liberty by not only paying Church's bill of $13, but also that of Perry's, amounting to about five dollars. Perry claimed that Milligan had given him a worthless check for the amount of his bill.

Is Improving.

The Marion National Mill company is making further improvements at its plant. A new wheat unloader is being installed. Heretofore the work of unloading wheat has been done by hand, but within the last year an invention has been completed, whereby this work can be done by machinery.

M. V. Messenger, E. E. Drown, Melvin, William and Jesse Imbody, Philip Schwaderer and Charles Roux left, Tuesday, for Hale, Center, Texas. They will investigate the land there with a view to buying.

VESSEL THAT WILL RECTIFY OCEAN CHARTS OF ENTIRE WORLD ON FIFTEEN YEAR VOYAGE

New York, Aug. 20.—Fully equipped and manned, the nonmagnetic yacht, the Carnegie, is ready to sail on the first leg of her fifteen-year voyage to correct the magnetic charts of all oceans of the world. The vessel, which cost $125,000, is as nearly nonmagnetic as it is possible to make a modern seagoing craft, for all her metal places except a few steel valves and the piston rods of her little engine are of bronze. Every piece of metal put into the yacht was thoroughly tested for magnetism, and scientists agree that her compass will point to the magnetic pole without the slightest variation from every angle of the globe. The undertaking is directed by the Carnegie institute at Washington, and the work of charting the seas will be done by Commander William J. Peters, scientific representative of the institute. Captain C. E. Littlefield is sailing master of the vessel. The Carnegie goes first to Hudson bay, and, returning to New York in the late fall, her hull will be sheathed with copper to protect it from worms when she cruises in southern waters, which she will do next winter. The vessel is 155 feet six inches in length, with full sail power, brigantine rig, carrying 13,000 square feet of plain sail.

MOVE TO PROTECT THE BONDHOLDERS

A Committee To Take Charge of C., D. & M. Bonds.

To protect the bondholders of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Railway company, now that the corporation is in a receiver's hands, steps are being taken to form a protective committee, with the members of which the company's bonds will be deposited.

These bonds are held in large numbers by financial men of Louisville, Kentucky, and Portland, Maine, while many are held by Marion and Delaware county capitalists. The Columbus, Delaware & Marion Electric first mortgage bonds are good, as there are about $1,000,000 of them outstanding and they are a first lien on all property of the company between Columbus and Delaware. It is probable that the personnel of the protective committee will be announced in a few days and a request made for the deposit of the bonds.

TEXAS MAY MOVE TO SAVE NEW INCOME-TAX BILL

Robert Lee Henry, of Waco, Texas, who is serving his seventh term in congress, has written to Governor Campbell urging him to summon the legislature to meet immediately to ratify the income tax amendment to the federal constitution. Unless an extra session is called the legislature will not meet until January, 1911. Congressman Henry says the amendment is in peril, but that it may be saved by the prompt action of Texas and other states. It is believed that the governor will act promptly on the suggestion.

J Wilbur Jacoby is in receipt of a letter from Washington informing him that a consignment of tiny fish to start the task of replenishing Marion county's streams will arrive here within the next sixty days Mr Jacoby is directed to have four ten gallon cans in which to convey the minnows to the places where he wishes to release them Two of the ten gallon cans will contain catfish and the other two rock bass

FOUND BURIED IN CEMETERY

Rochester Girl Dies in Defense of Her Honor.

HORRIBLY BEATEN BY HER ASSAILANT

Her Body Presents a Most Sickening Sight.

Is Outraged, Then Slain and Buried Under a Shallow Covering of Earth and Boughs in a Lonely Spot in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Disappears Saturday, Her Body Is Found Today.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug 9.—A murder was unearthed here today when the body of Miss Anna Schumacher, seventeen, who has been missing since Saturday was found in a lonely spot in Holy Sepulcher cemetery The girl had been beaten to death with a heavy stone which was found by her head and had been assaulted before death.

The place of the crime was one ideally situated for such a deed. The girl visited the cemetery, Saturday morning, and in a lonely part of the grounds was attacked by an unknown assailant. That she fought desperately for honor and life was shown by many signs of a struggle about the place where she was attacked.

When Miss Schumacher failed to return from the cemetery late Saturday night the police were notified. They in turn, notified the authorities of Greece, in which town the cemetery is located and officers there took up the search. They found the body today. The murderer, after killing the girl, had dug a shallow grave and placed her body in it in an effort to conceal the evidences of the crime

Pick Up Trail.

The constable picked up the trail today when they found signs that a body had been dragged through the grass. The trail led to a depression, about which the earth had been disturbed. Earth and brush covered the corpse which the officers soon found. The appearance of the body was horrifying. On the head lay a large stone, evidently the weapon used in the murder. The face was battered almost beyond recognition and there were bruises all over the body and limbs. The clothing was torn and disarranged, and there was every sign in the condition of both corpse and clothing that the girl had made a strong struggle for honor and life.

As soon as the body had been found, the sheriff's office and the Rochester police were notified and a large force is now engaged on the case. The body was removed to the morgue in this city and an autopsy showed the girl had been assaulted before death.

Hunt in Vain.

The girl went to the cemetery to place flowers on her father's grave. Her brother drove with his sister to the cemetery Saturday evening her brother went there with a lantern in a vain hunt for the girl. All day yesterday was spent by the family and friends and the officers got into the case today.

It is said that women have been insulted frequently during the past two weeks by members of a gang of rowdies who have been making their headquarters in the cemetery.

The deputies are now seeking clews to this gang as they feel sure the girl was attacked by them.

A Sister Followed.

The girl's sister, while wandering about the cemetery yesterday in search for her, was followed, she says, by a young man.

A wound in the dead girl's head caused the blood to soak the ground directly beneath more than two feet. The girl's left breast had been torn nearly off and her throat shows the effects of the death grip of her assailant

The fiend emptied the unfortunate girl's pocketbook of the seventy-five cents it contained and threw it, with her hat, on the body in the grave.

Men working at the cemetery say that the girl must have been murdered shortly after 4 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. They say they might have heard screams, but the fact that the shouting of persons at Seneca, across the river, are clearly and often heard in the cemetery, has led them to pay no attention to such noises. The cemetery is much frequented on Saturday afternoons, and it must have been that the murderer rendered the girl unconscious at his first attack or some one would have heard her screams.

A pathetic feature is added to the case, in the fact that when she left home the girl had but three bouquets to decorate the graves of her dead. These she used on graves in the new part of the cemetery and then she went to the older part where she cut the grass and made the ground about the graves more presentable.

HUNGER COMPELS THEIR SURRENDER

Three Stowaways Will Return to Spain To Be Shot.

New York, Aug. 18.—Manacled at wrists and ankles, three men, either Spanish anarchists or men fleeing from army service, are held prisoners on the Spanish liner, Buenos Ayres, and will be returned by her captain to the authorities in Barcelona, where they will probably be shot for participation in the recent rioting there. The men are believed to have stowed away on the ship when it left Barcelona for Cadiz with troops. At Cadiz fourteen of the troops were shot because they threw away their rifles and refused to land with their fellows. The three stowaways were not found, nor did they put in an appearance until the ship was half way across the Atlantic Hunger compelled them to surrender

ARMY OF EL ROGHI UTTERLY ROUTED

Put to Flight by Forces of the Moorish Sultan.

Tangier, Aug. 18.—Details received here today of the battle fought on August 12 between the forces of Sultan Mulai Hafid and El Roghi, the rebel pretender, show Roghi's army was practically annihilated. Hundreds were killed on both sides, although the royalist loss was comparatively slight.

A price has been put on Roghi's head and the entire country about Fez is being scoured for him. Three hundred of the rebel soldiers were taken prisoners to Fez and the hands of seventy of the rebel officers were chopped off. The royalist victory has put a temporary end to the effort to oust the sultan.

PLOT TO MULCT THE RAILROADS

False Claims for Damages for Injuries in Alleged Accidents.

Montreal, Aug. 18.—The legal department of the Canadian Pacific railroad claims to have unearthed a huge conspiracy to mulct that and other corporations by means of false claims for damages for personal injuries received in alleged accidents. The claimants are alleged to have a regular organization, with branches in Chicago, Toronto, Vancouver and other places, and to carry on a systematic scheme of fraud by means of false claims, false witnesses, etc. Three arrests have been made, and others are promised. The conspiracy is said to involve a number of lawyers and doctors.

LOCOMOTIVE USED FOR PATROL WAGON

A Sensational Pursuit of Safe-Blowers Wednesday.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 19.—A locomotive used as a patrol wagon figured, Wednesday, in a sensational pursuit of safe-blowers by the police. One man was wounded in the battle with the robbers, who were driven away from the office of the Dornbecher Manufacturing company before they had time to loot the safe.

Four cracksmen entered the office of the concern and overpowered and bound the watchman. Then they cracked the safe. At this juncture, the switch engine pulled into the company's sidetrack and the brakeman entered the office. He was met by a fusillade of bullets and fell seriously wounded. The engineer, hearing the shots, sent his engine ahead and dashed down a track through the center of the town to the police station and returned to the scene of the robbery in time to prevent robbers from looting the safe. The cracksmen escaped.

Mexico City, Aug. 17.—President Diaz will meet President Taft next October.

This statement was made here by the Mexican minister of foreign affairs, M. Marascal, who stated that all of the details of the historic event had been arranged with the exception of the granting of the permission to President Diaz to leave Mexican soil. The minister said there was little doubt but what this would be immediately granted.

CONVICTS MAKE AN EFFORT TO ESCAPE

Men Try To Tunnel Their Way to Freedom.

Pittsburg, Aug. 19.—The startling discovery that a second attempt by prisoners to tunnel their way to freedom from the Western Pennsylvania penitentiary was made yesterday. Several convicts are said to be connected with the tunneling plot and two who, it is said, were most prominently connected in the scheme, are now in solitary confinement.

The tunnel was started from a lumber shed inside the walls. From the direction taken it is supposed the convicts planned to come out in an open field just outside the walls.

A guard, inspecting the yards and happening to walk over some loose boards, noticed a hollow sound, and, investigating, found a hole beneath the boards just big enough to admit the body of a man. An investigation was started and the suspects placed in solitary confinement.

This is the first attempt at tunneling from the prison since the sensational Sterling street tunnel, when a house was rented across the street from the prison and an underground passageway directed from there to the prison.

RECORDS AGAIN GO BY THE BOARD

Boston Wins the Herrick Trophy. An Ohio Team Second.

Camp Perry, O., Aug. 19. — Again the Ohio State Rifle association's tourney records went by the board. The Massachusetts team shot up the field of 37 in the Herrick match by the record of 1,700, which, by 53 points, beats the score the United States marine corps made last year, and furthermore, it falls but 12 points short of equalling the world's record score by which the United States team won the Palma match in 1907 at Ottawa, Ont. In the fast and furious race for the $3,500 trophy given by Former Governor Myron T. Herrick of Ohio, which now goes to Boston, along with the eight gold medals and $200 in cash, the Ohio team came in second with 1,696, and gets $100. The United States marine corps, using its telescopic sights, took the $50 third prize with 1,695, and the navy landed the $25 fourth prize with 1,681.

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW IS COMING OVER TO HAVE FUN WITH AMERICA

George Bernard Shaw the author, playwright and wit, is expected to arrive in the United States on August 15 to remain until the convention of the unemployed is held in Chicago on January 5. Shaw has never been in America, but he has had a great deal of fun at our expense, and very probably he will have some startling information to impart to the old world concerning our customs and customs when he returns to London. His views of doings in America have not always taken a pleasant turn, either, for he has frequently said that the execution of the Chicago anarchists for the Haymarket murders was a national disgrace. He also was very bitter when the play "Mrs. Warren's Profession" was stopped by the New York police.

E. H. HARRIMAN IS A SICK MAN

Too Feeble To Walk Decks of Steamer.

WHEEL CHAIR IS USED BY MAGNATE

German Baths and Food Prove Weakening.

Railroad Wizard Sails on the Kaiser William II from Cherbourg Today. Makes Trip from Paris to Dock in Special Train—Will Go to His Country Home, Arden, Near New York.

Cherbourg, Aug. 18.—All doubt as to the state of Edward H. Harriman's health was removed today when the railway magnate was taken in a roller chair from the railway station to the tender of the North German Lloyd steamer, Kaiser Wilhelm II, on which he embarked for America.

The roller chair was also taken aboard the steamer, indicating that Harriman is too weak even to walk the deck of the vessel.

Accompanied by his wife, two daughters, his son, private secretary and three servants, Harriman arrived here from Paris on a special train, which left Paris at 11 o'clock. He sought to enforce the utmost secrecy regarding his movements, the purpose of which was evident the moment he appeared at the railway station here.

Helped from Train.

The financier, on whose word the stocks of many of the great railway systems of America go up or down, had to be helped from his train, and his movements indicated extreme weakness and lassitude. His secretary was intended to keep his true condition from the public so as not to have a bad effect on the market, according to one of his friends. He struggled bravely to keep up a show of having been benefited by the baths at Badgastein and other European watering places, but his strength failed so steadily that his true condition had finally to be revealed.

"I am not in a serious condition at all," Harriman remarked just before taking passage. "The baths at Badgastein weakened me, and the German food disagreed with me. Then, too, I was annoyed by the crowds in the hotels, and knocking about the continent proved very tiresome."

To Escape Newspapers.

Never did an American traveler make greater effort to escape newspaper men than Harriman did in Paris. Conflicting stories regarding his health and reports of important railway developments awaiting his return to America had aroused great interest in his movement and a small army of correspondents, many for papers throughout the continent, sought to interview him in Paris. To escape them, he gave out that he would go to Cherbourg on the boat special and then take a special train made up of a coach, diner and baggage car. The date of his sailing was in doubt until the last minute, and there are still reservations in name on the Maruentiana, which sails September 4. The North German Lloyd officers denied any knowledge of Harriman having been booked on one of their vessels, and his secretary refused to throw any light on the subject.

To Go to Arden.

Some of Harriman's friends tried to make it appear that his indisposition was a development of the last few days, but his statement that both the baths and food a Badgastein disagreed with him indicate that his trip to Europe in search of health proved a failure

Harriman indicated that he would retire to Arden, his country home near New York and undergo a rest cure. He recently cabled orders to the caretakers at Arden to have a suite of rooms in the big house, which is not yet completed, put in readiness for his early return.

Sails from Cherbourg.

Cherbourg, Aug. 18.—Edward H. Harriman sailed for New York today aboard the Kaiser Wilhelm II. Until the last the railroad magnate enforced the strictest secrecy regarding his movements. At first both his private secretary and the north German Lloyd steamship officials denied any knowledge of his movements, but the secretary finally admitted that Mr. Harriman was sailing, but denied that the return had been hastened by railway developments at home or by the state of Mr. Harriman's health.

Harriman himself could not be reached by any of the army of newspaper men that sought him both in Paris and Cherbourg. Correspondents from many continental cities tried to interview him, as conflicting stories regarding his health and reports of important railroad developments awaiting his return to America had aroused unusual interest in his movements.

To escape the newspaper men, Harriman did not take the Cherbourg boat special when he left Paris at 11 o'clock this morning, but made the trip on a special train.

Closed Carriage Used.

Harriman was rushed from the Cherbourg station to the pier in a closed carriage and was whisked to his stateroom before anybody had a chance to talk with him.

Fleeting as were the glimpses obtained of the railway magnet they tend to confirm the report that he is returning to America fully two weeks ahead of the date originally chosen on account of disappointment over the condition of his health. One of the magnate's Paris friends, who accompanied him to Paris from Munich, is authority for the statement that the Badgastein baths did no bring the expected relief and that Harriman concluded he would be as well off in his New York office as at any of the European watering places.

The statement of Harriman's secretary, made yesterday in Paris, that Harriman would hardly return to his desk in New York until several weeks after his return is considered of the utmost significance as tending to show that the stay in Europe was not as beneficial as expected.

Statement by Harriman.

New York, Aug. 18.—The following statement was given out this afternoon at the office of the Union Pacific Railroad company:

"The following cablegram was received at this office today from E. H. Harriman:

"'Paris, Aug. 18.—I am coming home for an aftercure. With the after-treatment at Badgastien I lost about ten pounds. Home food is better than hotel food. I hope to gain weight there and recuperate more rapidly than I would here. I do this by the advice of physicians.'"

ATTORNEY GENERAL GIVES AN OPINION

Election Board Member Not Eligible for Office.

Columbus, Aug. 19.—Ross county politicians seem to have the job-itch bad. One of the county board of election members wants to run for the school board of Chillocothe and yet remain on the election board and count his own votes. The question having been passed up by Prosecutor Peter J. Blosser of Ross county, Attorney General Denman held Wednesday that an election board member is ineligible for any office.

Applaud Pinchot's Speech.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 19.—Gifford Pinchot, chief forester of the United States department of agriculture, and Thomas F. Walsh, millionaire mine owner, exchanged bon mots before the Transmississippi congress. As a concluding note in the harmony of the session the delegates loudly cheered Mr. Pinchot's address. The so-called "enemies of Pinchotism" said they were satisfied with the conservative ideas of the speaker and joined in the cheering. Mr. Pinchot's address dwelt on conservation as a practical business policy. He said that the loss or injury of one great staple will not only injure that particular business, but will strike at the heart of many allied interests. He complimented Former President Roosevelt.

WOMAN STABS HER HUSBAND TO DEATH

In the Presence of Their Four Young Children.

New York, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Angusta Crisanti drove a knife into the heart of her husband, Luigi, and killed him instantly, today, when, with his fingers tightening about her throat, he sought to hurl her out of the fifth floor window of the tenement in which they live on Avenue A.

The couple's four children witnessed the tragedy and saw the mother throw herself upon the body of the man she had slain and implore him to speak to her.

The husband had been jealous of Eugene Chicarelli, a boarder. Chicarelli arose first today and began to prepare his breakfast. The woman dressed and began to aid him. When Chicarelli had gone, her husband upbraided her. A quarrel followed. The man secured his revolver and threatened to kill her. She seized the knife. He grasped her about the throat and tried to hurl her to death from the window. Then she stabbed him to death.

DAVENPORT SUED FOR A SEPARATION

Bases Her Case on a Charge of Abandonment.

New York, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Daisy B. Davenport, wife of Homer Davenport, the noted cartoonist, has entered suit for separation. The plea for separation is said to be based on the charge of abandonment. Davenport, it is said, went to the family farm at Morris Plains, New York, took all his blooded Arabian horses and the rest of his lifestock to his new farm at Goshen, New York. Friends of the couple declare their differences due to "artistic temperament."

BUYING LIQUOR IN DRY COUNTIES

Reputed Movement of Personal Liberty League.

TO BE EXHIBITED TO OHIO SOLONS

The Prosecution of Dealers Is Threatened.

Bonded Goods Purchased of "Blind Tigers" and "Speakeasies" To Prove That Prohibition Does Not Prohibit—The Anti-Saloon League Leaders Will Endeavor To Secure Possession of Proposed Exhibit.

Columbus, O., Aug. 18.—Officials of the Anti-Saloon league are investigating reports that representatives of the Personal Liberty league are buying liquors of "blind tigers" in dry counties over the state to present to the legislature this winter to prove that prohibition does not prohibit. The anti-saloon leaders say they will bring action against the "blind tigers" and will use the agents of the Personal Liberty league as witnesses.

Efforts by liquor interests to have the Rose county local option law repealed by the legislature will be resumed next winter. Detectives of the Personal Liberty league are said to be working in all dry counties, buying bottles of liquors of "blind tigers" and "speakeasies." These bottles, it is said, are being labeled as they are bought with tags stating the time, place and person who sold them the forbidden goods. This collection of evidence will be brought to Columbus next winter and exhibited before the temperance committees of the upper and lower house of assembly. The anti-saloon leaders probably will endeavor to secure possession of the liquor exhibit after it has been shown the legislature. Warrants may be sworn out for the arrest of the proprietors of the "blind tigers" and "speakeasies" who sold the liquor.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Treasury officials are much gratified over the receipts of the bureau of internal revenue for the month of July, the first month of the new fiscal year, which show an increase of $939,326 over July of last year. The receipts during July, 1909, were $22,968,642, and during July, 1908, $22,029,316. In the view of officials this increase augurs well for the general prosperity of the country.

NEGROES SHIPPED TO BUCKEYE STATE

Army Enlisting Recruits Among the Southern Blacks.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 18.—The male negro population of Atlanta has been materially reduced and the owners of drug stores, soda fountains, near-beer saloons and messenger agencies are loudly denouncing the United States army for robbing them of their help. The Tenth cavalry (colored) has just returned from a three-year tour of duty in the Philippines, and many terms of enlistment are expiring. To fill the ranks negroes are being enlisted again. The enthusiastic reception given the black regiment upon its arrival in New York recently has been the one topic among southern blacks, and they are all delighted because the negro troopers were treated "like white folks." Consequently over 100 recruits have just been shipped to the Columbus (O.) station.

Cramps are Lowest.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The Cramp Shipbuilding company, of Philadelphia, and the New York Shipbuilding company of Camden, New Jersey, were the lowest bidders today for the two 26,000-ton battleships, Wyoming and Arkansas, authorized by the last congress.

Fell From High Trestle.

Columbus, O., Aug. 18.—C. E. Whitehead, superintendent of bridge building for the Capital Construction company of this city, fell from a high trestle near Williamsburg, Ky., and was drowned in the waters of the Cumberland river.

A THICK COAT OF WHITEWASH

Is Applied to Officers in the Sutton Case.

LAYER AFTER LAYER APPLIED BY BOARD

Sutton Kills Himself Without Any Assistance.

No Possible Charge of Criminality Lies Against Any Participant in the Affray and His Death Is Not Caused by Any Other Injury Whatever Than That Made by His Own Colt Revolver.

Washington, Aug 18.—The naval board of inquiry in the case of the death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton, has found that Lieutenant Sutton "was killed by a revolver shot from a service Colt revolver held in his own right hand, and fired by himself without the intervention of any other hand."

The court adds as its opinion, "no possible charge of criminality lies against any of the participants in the affray except Lieutenant Sutton himself, and that Lieutenant Sutton is directly and solely responsible for his own death, which was self-inflicted, either intentionally or in an effort to shoot one of the persons restraining him, and his death was not caused by any other injury whatever."

Purely Imaginary.

Of the charge made by the mother of Lieutenant Sutton, the court says: "The charge of wilful murder and conspiracy to conceal it made by the complainant, Mrs. Sutton, the mother of Lieutenant Sutton, are purely imaginary and unsupported by even a shadow of evidence, truth or reason.

A minority report was made by Commander John Hood, U. S. N., in which he concurs in the finding and adds that he is of the opinion that Lieutenants Williams, Bevan and Utley should have been brought to trial at the time for neglect of duty and that Lieutenants Adams and Osterman should have received milder punishment for engaging in a brawl under the dignity of officers and gentlemen. He concurs in the recommendation that no further proceedings be taken at this time because of their youth and inexperience at that time, and because of their being, in a sense, the victims of a system for which they themselves are not responsible.

Beekman Winthrop, acting secretary of the navy, also takes occasion in approving the findings of the court to deprecate the laxity of discipline as shown in the testimony. He says: "The results of this laxity have brought serious discredit not only on the officers directly responsible for the efficiency of the institution, but unfortunately on the marine corps as a whole."

MANY RELATIVES OF LATE PETER LEIBACH

He Leaves a Fortune and They Want Money.

Pittsburg, Aug. 18.—Persons in different cities over the country who have suddenly come to the conclusion that they are related to Peter Liebach, the miser, in whose hovel was found a fortune will at present get little satisfaction from their effort to scrape up the relationship.

Nothing further has been done towards determining the exact amount of Leibach's wealth or the number of his relatives. A guardian will be appointed soon, who will take charge of the money and the claims of the numerous relations.

Letters from different points have arrived almost daily in which the writer claims to be related to Leibach.

RULING IS GIVEN AS TO CANDIDATES

Party Committees Can Not Put Up Candidates.

Columbus, Aug. 18.—Where a party fails to make a nomination for a given office at the coming primaries the party committee can not put up a candidate for the job under the guise of filling a vacancy, so held Attorney General Denman, Tuesday, in an opinion to Prosecutor B. F. Welty, of Lima. The party committee can only fill a bona fide vacancy following the refusal or inability of some candidate nominated to make the race.

Shot in Riot.

Pittsburg, Aug. 18.—One man was shot early today in a riot of strikers of the Pressed Steel car works when they attacked a workman whom they suspected of being a strike breaker.

LIQUOR ELECTIONS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Drys Carry Fifteen of Twenty-One Wet Counties.

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 18.—Returns from the elections held in the 21 so-called "wet" counties of South Carolina for the purpose of allowing the voters of each county to choose between prohibition and the county dispensary system, indicate that the prohibitionists have won victories in 15 of these counties. The dispensary has won in Aiken, Charleston and Richland counties, and is leading in Georgetown and Beaufort.

The gains made by the prohibitionists in the election are expected to lend impetus to the fight for statewide prohibition, which will be fairly on before the openings of the approaching session of the legislature, which convenes in January.

The election was without excitement or special incident in any county and a small vote was polled. One-half of the state was already dry, and the act under which the elections were held was a compromise measure adopted at the last session of the legislature to defeat a bill providing for statewide prohibition.

MURDERS HIS FATHER AND BURNS HIS BODY

Arthur Brown Makes a Confession to County Attorney.

STEPMOTHER HELPS COMMIT MURDER

Murderer Promises To Marry His Stepmother—A Niece of Brown Is Also Held for Murder and It Is Thought Another Man Is Implicated in the Affair.

Pawhuska, Okla., Aug. 19.—Arthur Brown, in a confession made to the county attorney, yesterday, declared he had murdered his father, I. P. Brown, and thrown his body into a burning brush pile. His stepmother, he declared, helped him to commit the murder and she promised to marry him.

Ruby Waters, thirteen, a niece of Mrs. Brown, who was at the Brown home on the night of the killing, is being held by the officers. Another man is said to be implicated in the crime.

Wednesday's confession followed a trip to the scene of the murder where Brown was led through the story as he had formerly told it to the sheriff. The brush heap was visited, and parts of bones and burned clothing were discovered.

HE'S SAVED BY A DOG'S SCENT

Missing Seaman of Wrecked Schooner Rescued at Sea.

New York, Aug. 19.—Madden Pierson, the missing seaman of the wrecked schooner Arlington, was picked up at sea by the fishing schooner Irene and Mary, after having drifted without food, drink or sleep for 27 hours on a crazy raft of lashed spars. Then he took a long pull from the captain's flask, swallowed a cup of piping hot coffee and turned in, without further comment. While Pierson was rolled up in blankets below, Captain Ericson was making something of a hero of "Sport," a black, curly-haired spaniel, the mascot of the schooner. For an hour before the rescue Sport had been snuffing the windward air, pawing the rail and yelping excitedly. Puzzled by the dog's behavior, the captain kept a sharp lookout, and when he saw what looked like a buoy slipped from its moorings, he headed the schooner for it immediately. Soon he could make out the figure of a man waving his undershirt. It was Pierson.

TAFT CONVINCED TAX LAW VALID

Not Disturbed by Threats of Possible Action

WHICH CORPORATIONS MAY CONTEMPLATE

President Says That the Act Will Stand.

Attorney General Wickersham Is To Discuss with President Several Important Subjects That Will Be the Principal Recommendations in the Presidential Message to Congress in Month of December.

Washington, Aug. 19. — Attorney General Wickersham is coming here to see the president on Friday afternoon to go over with Mr. Taft a few of the preliminaries in the plan for the reorganization of the duties of the interstate commerce commission, the amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law, and bringing interstate corporations more definitely under the control of one branch of the government. Mr. Wickersham has given much study to these subjects, which will be the principal recommendations in the president's message to congress next December.

According to Mr. Taft's view the machinery to enforce the laws on the statute books is now inadequate. He believes that the interstate commerce commission is so overcrowded with work that the long delays incident to its investigations and decisions under existing conditions work a hardship alike to the railroads and the complainants with grievances. The president also believes that under the Sherman anti-trust law as it stands there is much to interfere with legitimate business. He has been urged by many of his advisers to recommend its repeal in toto. But the president believes that by amendment it can be made an effective and just instrument.

Reports reaching Beverly daily from Washington and New York that the constitutionality of the new corporation tax is to be tested just as soon as an effort is made to collect it, have not disturbed the president the least, as he told a number of callers at the Taft cottage. The tests and the protests, the president declared, were all anticipated, and no threats of the corporation lawyers now cause the chief magistrate any alarm.

Mr. Taft is thoroughly convinced that the tax will stand any test that may be applied to it. Attorney General Wickersham, a corporation lawyer of note, and Senator Root collaborated on the corporation tax provision of the tariff bill, and the measure as enacted, they believed, will survive any attempt to nullify it. Mr. Taft views the prospect of a fight in court over the tax in his characteristically philosophical frame of mind. He said that the test cases were but natural, and that no unusual or new system of taxation had never been submitted to without some sort of fight.

MEN OFFER TO GIVE BLOOD FOR A GIRL

Miss Kayser Suffers of an Unusual Disease.

New York, Aug. 18.—Touched by the story of a brother's sacrifice for his sister, twelve athletic men have come forward and offered to give up as much of their life blood as is necessary to save the life of Miss Celie Kayser, the twenty-year-old daughter of Louis Kayser, millionaire hardware dealer.

Miss Kayser is suffering from pernicious anemia at St. Luke's hospital. Two months ago her brother, Arthur Kayser, had two quarts of his blood transfused into his sister's arteries, in an effort to save her. He gave too much and wrecked his own health, dwindling from 180 pounds to 140 But his sister relapsed. Young Kayser wanted to give more blood, but the physician refused to allow it.

An advertisement of the facts brought twelve able-bodied men. Physicians will examine them and from the best the blood will be taken.

IT DESTROYS BOLL WEEVIL

Heat Wave Causes the Cotton Growers To Rejoice.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The heat wave which swept the country from coast to coast Monday is still rampant, and new records were established. From all over the south and southwest come reports of intense suffering, but few cases of prostration. The cotton growers are rejoicing over the heat wave, as they claim that it is rapidly destroying the boll weevil. Fort Worth, Tex., was the hottest city in the south or southwest. The government thermometer registered 111 degrees.

DOES NOT REMEMBER KILLING HIS WIFE

Ritter Makes a Queer Statement to Prosecutor Today.

Findlay, O., Aug. 18.—"If I killed my wife and baby, I do not remember anything about it. I have no recollection of anything of the kind. I could easily have committed the crime while I was walking in my sleep. My life has been full of mysteries."

This was the sensational statement made today by James H. Ritter, the McComb paper hanger after he had been arraigned before 'Squire Merrill Sours, pleaded not guilty in a grm voice, and bound over to the grand jury which meets early next month.

As soon as the preliminary hearing was completed, Prosecuting Attorney Blackford examined the prisoner in the presence of a representative of the United Press. It was then that he made the sensational statement about his failure o remember the fact if he killed his wife and child. The prosecutor has in his possession a number of tender love-letters written to a wife of a prominent farmer by Ritter. She was a schoolmate of Ritter's and highly respected. She turned the missives over to her husband, who, about three months ago, administered a sound thrashing to Ritter.

As yet Ritter has failed to secure any counsel. He has dropped his indifferent manner and seems for the first time to be deeply concerned about his case.

MRS. JULIA CURTISS WINS GREAT VICTORY

Contest as to Her Competency in Business.

GETS MILLIONS OF MARY G. PINKNEY

Son of Mrs. Curtiss Begins a Legal Battle To Have His Mother Adjudged Incompetent To Handle Property—A Justice Finds Him Wrong in His Contention.

New York, Aug. 18.—Mrs. Julia Watt Morris Curtiss, who inherited $17,000,000 of the estate of the late Mary G. Pinkney, won a decided victory, Tuesday, in her contest with her son over her competency to manage her own property, when Supreme Court Justice Brady removed the committee appointed to take charge of her millions.

Two years ago, before the death of Miss Pinkney, Mrs. Curtiss' son, Louis N. Morris, took steps to have his mother adjudged incompetent to manage her own affairs. The Connecticut probate court ruled that she was incompetent and appointed Judge Elmore Banks and John C. Shaw, conservators of her estate in Fairfield county, and later the New York supreme court appointed them a committee to handle her estate in New York.

Justice Brady sets aside the act of the New York courts declaring it has not been shown she is incompetent. Her son charged she was wantonly extravagant, intemperate and insane, sometimes spending $12,000 a month.

Since the appointment of the committee, Mrs Curtiss has been paid by the courts orders $280,000 with which to pay her dressmakers and lift an attachment from her yacht. Mrs. Curtiss alleged, that, though worth $17,000,000, her conservators were so strict she often had to borrow $10 from a friend for her immediate wants.

TEN PERSONS ARE BADLY HURT

Bridge Over Chicago River Gives Way at Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Ten persons were injured seriously and 20 others had narrow escapes when 250 feet of the Twelfth street bridge over the river and viaduct collapsed. The bridge was closed on its west approach for construction work on the railroad viaduct underneath. The accident occurred just after a streetcar had run part way across the bridge, and 30 passengers had alighted to walk over the dangerous portion to get another car. The passengers were hurrying in a huddled group, when there was a loud rumbling and a crash and the footway sank beneath them, carrying many to the pits below. Many escaped by clinging to the side timbers. These, with the crews, began the work of rescue, and most of the injured were taken out before the police ambulance came. Several were found with legs and arms broken and internal injuries.

Mrs. Retterer was presented a handsome rocker.

350 PRISONERS ARE EXECUTED

By the Authorities in Charge at Barcelona.

EXECUTIONS DAILY SINCE AUGUST 1

As Many as Four Groups Are Shot in a Day.

The Executions Are Now Decreasing Merely Because Most of the Prisoners Have Either Been Killed or Released—Prisoners Are Terribly Tortured in Many Cases in Effort To Get Information.

Perpignan, France, Aug. 18.—Spanish refugees who arrived here today after having been released from the Montjuich fortress in Barcelona, deny the official statement issued from Madrid yesterday that the execution of those taking a large part in recent revolutionary uprisings did not begin until yesterday.

They say that the authorities at Barcelona have been executing prisoners since August 1 and that fully 350 have been shot in the last two weeks.

The firing squads killed as many as four groups of prisoners a day according to the refugees. The executions are now decreasing merely because most of the prisoners have either been killed or released. In many cases, the refugees say, the prisoners were terribly tortured in an effort to get information concerning some of the suspected leaders.

Grape Growers vs. Wine Makers.

Sandusky, O., Aug. 18.—The department of agriculture opened a station here to determine the merits of the fight between the grape growers and the wine manufacturers in the northern United States grape belt. The belt extends from Toledo, O., on the west to the Hudson river, in New York state, on the east. Professor W. B. Alwood, superintendent of the Ohio agricultural experiment station at Wooster, O., is in charge of the station. Grape growers charge that by using substances other than grapes the wine manufacturers have forced down the prices. The manufacturers assert that the grapes are too poor in quality to make good wine unassisted by other ingredients.

Sullivan Replies to Morris.

Columbus, O., Aug. 18.—J. C. Sullivan, who for some months has been acting as railway commissioner, filed his brief in the supreme court in reply to the suit in ouster brought against him by J. C. Morris, former state railway commissioner, who, pending the litigation over the commissionership, has returned to his old work, that of a passenger conductor, running out of Youngstown. Sullivan charges that under the common laws Former Governor Harris had no right, as he assumed, to reappoint Morris as railway commissioner to a term beginning after the expiration of his own (Harris's) term.

Grabbed a Live Wire.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 18.—Amos Brightfell, a lineman, was electrocuted while at work on a pole. All attempts of physicians at St. Alexis hospital to resuscitate him failed. Brightfell lost his footing while at the top of the pole, and in order to prevent a fall to the ground, 50 feet below, he grabbed a live wire. A current of 2,300 volts passed through his body immediately.

Hermit's Hard Head.

Hamilton, O., Aug. 18.—Clutching a revolver in his right hand and lying in a pool of clotted blood, Jonas Strunck, 57, a hermit, was found unconscious in a hovel in East Hamilton. Although he had shot himself four times in the back of the head, the bullets flattened against his skull, inflicting mere scalp wounds. He is expected to recover.

Automobiles In Ohio.

Columbus, O., Aug. 18.—There are now 21,000 licensed automobiles in Ohio. This means that the state automobile department has an annual revenue of $105,000 in sight as the law now stands, and if amended next winter so as to double the annual license fee, as proposed by some, it will have a revenue of over $200,000 a year.

Valuable Papers.

Two notes to the amount of $250 and some papers and receipts for dues paid to the I. O. O. F. lodge, of Douglass, Oklahoma, were picked up on the street Thursday and turned over to the police to await an owner. The notes are made payable to Harley O. Irey and the lodge receipts also bear this name.

An ambition is what a man thinks he could do to benefit the world; a mission is what he tries to do to support his family.

HENEY WILL BE IN FRISCO RACES

Probable He Will Be the Opponent of Charles Fickert.

San Francisco, Aug. 18.—Incomplete returns today indicate that William Crocker, the organization candidate will receive the Republican nomination for mayor under the new direct primary law. The figures received thus far indicate that Graft Prosecutor Francis J. Heney was defeated for the Republican endorsement by Charles Fickert, the organization candidate for district attorney. The endorsement for the district attorney by the Labor Union and Democratic parties is still in doubt.

The Independent Republicans ran Byron Mauzey against Crocker. The Democratic candidate for mayor will probably be T. B. Leland, the organization candidate who defeated Ralph McLaren, Independent.

At the regular election Heney will probably be the candidate against Fickert, as he can secure many votes by running independently and by having Democrats write his name on their tickets. P. H. McCarthy will probably be the Labor Union candidate for mayor.

WILL MAKE PLEA FOR TRANSFER OF THAW

Object of Alice Thaw in Going to Justice Mills.

CORRECTION OF GROSS MISTAKES

A Statement of Mrs. Copley Thaw in Regard to Reports Concerning the Devoted Sister of Harry Thaw. Mother Hopes for Change of Her Son to Bloomingdale Asylum.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Copley Thaw, mother of Harry K. Thaw, in a statement issued here, declared that the chief purpose of the visit of her daughter, Alice Thaw, to Justice Mills at the Megantic fish and game preserve in Maine, who is taking his vacation, was to plead for the transfer of Harry Thaw from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane to the Bloomingdale asylum.

"The thought was suggested," the mother said, "by a great-hearted and wise physician that the judge would surely order this change if a personal appeal were made to him. He went so far as to ask if my daughter or I would undertake this. Quickly and gladly my daughter offered to go.

"It can not be that this illegal restraint of an acquitted man, known by everybody to be absolutely sane, can last much longer, no matter how vindictive those who attempt to defeat justice may be.

"Allow me to make right some gross mistakes regarding this brave, devoted sister and daughter. Alice Thaw made no stipulation nor did the family of the Marquis De Hartford, at the time of her marriage, such as were published in some of the morning papers. On the contrary, she remained in this country absolutely under her own control. The Hartford family always pays her the utmost respect, for good and sufficient reasons, aside from her own personality.

"When she annulled her marriage a year and a half ago, she had a perfect right under the English law to hold to the title. She was urged to do so by friends and her legal advisers, but she preferred to be rid of it altogether. She has a host of warm friends in England and her own quiet home, off St. James' park, has, like my own, been kept open all these months, hoping always for justice."

BINGHAM TELLS WHY HE'S FIRED

The Answer Is Because He's in Way of McClellan.

New York, Aug. 18.—In the September number of a well-known magazine, former Police Commissioner Bingham tells "Why I Was Removed," and the recital is a direct attack upon Mayor McClellan. Bingham declares that the whole difficulty between the mayor and himself grew out of his refusal to allow the mayor to run the police department in an effort to strengthen his hold on Tammany Hall. He declares that the main split occurred when McClellan wanted to reintroduce in the department "the transfer system" by which the strongest men politically were to be given the easiest berths, regardless of their ability to do the work. The entire article is a severe arraignment of the mayor.

Shah Attacked by His Father.

Rome, Aug. 19.—According to advices received here from Teheran, Persia, the recent attempt of the young shah to commit suicide was really an attempt to assassinate the boy made by his father, the deposed shah, who struck his son with a poniard.

DEVELOPMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Giant Strides Made by the American Farmer

DURING THE LAST TWELVE YEARS

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson Makes Report.

The Farmers of the Country Will Be Able To Provide for Its Increasing Population — Seventy-Five Per Cent. Increase in Agricultural Balance of Trade—Improved Farm Conditions.

Washington, Aug. 19.—According to the agricultural department's year book, just made public, the agricultural balance of trade in the United States during the past 12 years increased from a yearly average of $234,000,000 to $411,000,000, or 75.7 per cent.

This wonderful development is only in keeping with the progress that has been made along all lines of agricultural activity. At the same time, it is stated, many conditions affecting the lives of the farmers of the country have advanced in even greater ratio, until many of the undesirable features of farm life have been eliminated.

Citing the increase in population, based upon the families of the native born, Secretary Wilson declares that no one need have fear that the farmers of this country will be unable to provide for its population. "They are already demonstrating, in the cases of various crops and of various states," he said, "that they can provide for a population increasing faster than by increase due to excess of births over deaths." From 1905 to 1906, he says, farm wages increased faster than did prices. In the matter of wage increase, the farm laborer has fared better than the workingman employed in manufacturing and mechanical industries.

During these 12 years there has been a great diversification and geographic extension of products, apart from the cultivation of new land. Although there has been a decreasing production per acre of what was only recently virgin soil, there was an increased production per acre of the entire country. The yield of cotton during the 10 years ending with 1908 was from a mean of 172 pounds per acre during the preceding 10 years to a mean of 191 pounds, or a 11 per cent increase. Other crops have kept pace with cotton. Within 10 years the production of corn per acre in Ohio increased 17.5 per cent. Oats increased 17.9 per cent in Indiana. Wheat increased 16.2 per cent in New York, and 45.9 per cent in Nebraska.

ATTORNEY GENERAL GIVES AN OPINION

One Place Where a Woman Can Not Serve.

Columbus, Aug. 18.—A woman can not be appointed as financial officer of a state institution, even of the Girls' Industrial home, which concerns women most, ruled Attorney General Denman in an opinion to Superintendent Webb, Tuesday. He says that women are barred by the constitutional provision that all officers of the public shall be qualified electors.

Wilkins Pays Bill.

William Wilkins, a board-bill jumper, was arrested at Columbus, Tuesday, and brought to this city. He was arraigned before Justice Charles E. Gompf and, after pleading guilty, was sentenced to sixty days in the Columbus workhouse. By arranging to pay the costs and the bill, amounting to $35.05, the sentence was suspended. Wilkins, a laborer, was arrested on complaint of M. H. Murphy.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL PICNIC AT PROSPECT

The Farmers Gather for Annual Outing.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM OF ADDRESSES GIVEN

Music, Both Vocal and Instrumental, Rendered—A Delaware Team Is Beaten by a Prospect Team in a Game of Ball—The Attendance Is Good—Day Very Pleasant.

Prospect, Aug. 20.—[Special.]—About the first expression one heard, Thursday morning, was "They'll all be here today." One farmer put it, "All the farmers will be here." These predictions were fully warranted when from the various sections of the county countless vehicles, including automobiles, began to turn into the leafy grove, where for years the farmers and many who are not farmers gather annually in a pilgrimage of devotion to the community's best interests and also to renew prized friendships.

Around the unpretentious stand in this beautiful grove the farmers gathered as students to learn, to study and to discuss the most advanced methods of farming, the latest system of farm sanitation, the most successful plans for the home, and many, many new ideas were presented such as are transforming the farmer's home today into the most helpful, restful place to live and labor.

The executive committee of citizens who looked after the affair this year consisted of J F. Moore, chairman; R. L. Osborn, secretary; E. M Stockwell, treasurer; R. W. Herbster, Fred Sauer, N. J. Gast, G. F. Gast.

The ideal day made everybody feel fine and inclined to have a good time.

At 10:30 a. m. Chairman Moore called for order and the program for the day was opened. The Prospect Knights of Pythias band played, after which Rev. S. C. Bates, of Marion, led in prayer. Under the direction of the leader, J. M. Gast, the male choir sang.

The welcome address was made by Mayor Huff. With one hand on a big, sweet pumpkin and the other on a monster head of cabbage, he talked to the people and made the guests feel that they were welcome to all the good things his proud little city had prepared for them.

This address was followed by a fine piano solo by Paul Gast.

Then came the spread fit for a king and his host. After dinner, the Bethlehem Star band gave a concert. The playing was well received.

The opening number for the afternoon was an overture by the Knights of Pythias band. The music was fine. Rev. A. M. Chapin led in prayer next and then the male choir sang several selections, to the delight of the audience.

W. P. Molony, of Marion, addressed the large crowd and received the close attention throughout his speech. His theme was "The Boy on the Farm." The speaker showed how conditions have changed during the last fifty years, and made clear why the farmer boy was called to the city to work in the factory through the introduction of machinery, the articles which in early years had been made at his home. The home ceased to be a manufactory and purchased from the factory, the necessities. He encouraged the farmer by proving that the appliances of electricity in locomotion, illumination, and other lines, will make the rural home as attractive and delightful as the homes of the city, even more so. The cry, "Go West," is now superceded by "stay at home on the farm." The steady march of the distracted populace of the congested districts in the cities is toward the country.

The farmer's home is destined to solve the question, What shall we do for our suffering brothers in the cities?"

After this address, Miss Ruth Freeman gave two violin solos, Mrs. Halliday presiding at the piano. The music was well received. Master Harold Johnston, in his humorous style, tickled the people with two recitations. The male choir then sang, 'Don't Forget the Old Folks," after which Rev Mr Clere, pastor of the Baptist church of this place, was introduced. The reverend gentleman was at his best and chose for his theme "Why I Won'd Like to be a Farmer." He opened his address by saying: "I cannot understand why a man who has been able to raise only sand should be called upon to address a lot of farmers. However, while I was a bachelor I learned that whatsoever a man sowed that shall he also reap." Another of his many pertinent jokes with which he seasoned so admirably his interesting address was told for the purpose of proving the value of satisfaction. He said, once a man advertised for a wife. The next day he received over forty letters from as many husbands who offered him their wives. The address was greatly enjoyed by the crowds.

Miss Louise Wottring delighted the people with a solo. This was followed by a piano duet by Paul Gast and Oscar Gast.

Chairman Moon finished the program with remarks in which he portrayed the important part which the early farmers played in the tragedy of the pioneer life, fighting disease, felling the forests and breaking the virgin sod. By their sacrifices and deprivations they secured for us the countless blessings which we enjoy today.

The crowd then turned toward the ball ground where nine Delaware players contended with Jack Frost's Stars for honors. The Stars beat the Delaware team by a score of seventeen to twelve. Nevertheless the game was greatly enjoyed by all.

The program for the day was fittingly closed with band concert and fine display of fireworks.

Harry Ulsh Is the Victim of an Accident.

Harry Ulsh, the thirteen-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. S G. Ulsh, three miles west of Caledonia, met with a serious accident, Thursday about 10 o'clock. He was driving a team of young horses in the road near his home, when in some manner they became frightened and ran away, throwing the boy to the ground. An automobile passed a short time after the accident and was stopped by neighbors. A surgeon happened to be in the machine and he gave the boy temporary aid. The boy's father, who was in Caledonia, was notified and quickly arrived, accompanied by Dr. Baker, of that place.

GERTRUDE BACHER IS BROUGHT TO MARION

Is Lodged in County Jail Wednesday Evening.

STATES SHE SHOOTS TO FRIGHTEN YOUTH

Does Not Intend To Injure Young Willis Bowles When She Fires a Shotgun at Him—The Injured Lad Will Recover—Father of the Boy Files Affidavit for a Warrant.

Gertrude Bacher, twenty years old, wife of William Bacher, residing a short distance east of Agosta, who, Wednesday afternoon, shot fourteen-year-old Willis Bowles, son of Edward Bowles, a neighbor, was locked in jail by Sheriff John Stark, Wednesday evening. She is charged with shooting with intent to kill, the affidavit being filed in the court of Justice Charles H. Conley by the boy's father.

Mrs. Bacher says she shot in the air to frighten the youth, who had been picking plums in an orchard on the Albert Boblenz farm, which is tenanted by the Bachers. She was placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Cornelius Breen. When the officer rapped at the front door of the Bacher home, the young woman came to the door.

"Yes, I did the shooting," she said when asked about it, "but I didn't mean to hurt the boy. I only meant to shoot in the air to scare him. I wouldn't have shot him for anything, for I like the little fellow."

The woman came to town with Sheriff Stark, Deputy Breen and Prosecuting Attorney Charles L. Justice. She did not appear excited and offered no resistance. She shuddered at sight of the jail. "I never handled a shotgun in my life before," she said, "and I wouldn't have shot him for anything."

The condition of the woman's youthful victim is not believed to be critical. His left hand was filled with twenty-eight bird shot and two or three stray shots entered his body on the left side. Unless blood-poisoning should complicate matters, the attending surgeon states he will recover.

Mrs. Bacher maintains that the boy was getting down out of the tree when she shot to frighten him. Prosecuting Attorney Justice says he has the names of eye-witnesses, who declare that the boy was running from her on the Big Four right-of-way, and that when she shot him Mrs Bacher returned to the house.

The injured lad was employed by Mr. Boblenz to gather plums out of the orchard, a part of which he claims, as the owner of the place, he reserved for his own use. The boy was ordered away in the morning by Mrs. Bacher, but returned in the afternoon, when the shooting occurred.

Edward Bowles, the boy's father, was so excited and nervous Wednesday evening, he could scarcely hold a pen to sign the affidavit prepared by Prosecutor Justice in the office of Justice Conley.

At the request of Mrs. Bacher's counsel, H. Edmund Hill, she will not be arraigned before Justice Conley until Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

SILAS HENSEL DIES AT HIS COUNTRY HOME

The Passing of a Well-Known Auctioneer.

DEATH COMES AS A SHOCK TO FRIENDS

Mr. Hensel Is in Marion Monday in the Best of Health to All Appearances—Death Is Result of Bowel Trouble—Leaves a Widow and Grown Children.

Silas Hensel, a well-known auctioneer, died at his home six miles southeast of the city, Thursday at 9:30 o'clock. His death was unexpected, he having been ill only since Friday night. He was in the city, Monday, apparently in the best of health. His death came as a shock to his friends and relatives. Death was due to bowel trouble.

Mr. Hensel was born in Pennsylvania, coming to this county when but a young man. He was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Fulton, of Marion county, and to this union was born seven children, four of whom survive their parent. He was a prosperous farmer and as an auctioneer and sale crier he was known all over the county. He was seventy-three years of age.

CHARLES THOMPSON REPEATS HIS STORY

Janitor Fatzler Denies the Truth of the Tale.

COMMITTEE MEETS AND HEARS VERSIONS

Fatzler Says Thompson Visits School Building Without His Consent. Thompson Says Fatzler Provides a File for Making Key—Report To Be Made by Committee Soon.

Charles Thompson, employed by the Marion City Water company as a meter reader, and J. Fred Fatzler, janitor of the Oiney Avenue school building, both appeared before the committee on janitors at a meeting held in the office of Clerk J. W. Jacoby, Tuesday evening.

Thompson again repeated his story of having been in the school-building with the janitor's permission about three or four weeks ago. No, only did he have the janitor's permission, but he declared that Fatzler had furnished him a file for making a key.

Several Saturday nights ago the building was broken into and considerable damage done. Thompson says he can prove that when the vandalism occurred he was on an excursion to Cedar Point with his wife and intimates that Fatzler put up a job on him. He declares that he was in the building to watch for the appearance of a girl relative, who was said to be visiting the school grounds with a lover at unseemly hours. "I was there to protect her and Fatzler knows it, but thank goodness there was no truth in the reports about her," Thompson declared.

Fatzler denied Thompson's statement in toto. "I never gave him permission nor nobody else permission to enter my school building," he said. He branded as a falsehood the statement that he furnished the file to Thompson to make a key for one of the locks.

Janitor and meter reader lost their tempers several times and clashes seemed imminent.

The janitors' committee is composed of W. B. Spaulding, chairman, and Members J. Wilbur Jacoby and George B. Christian, Jr. A report will be made at the next regular meeting of the board of education.

"The report will not be of serious import either way," said a member of the committee, Wednesday.

All the affidavits are similar and set up that "affiant, on his oath, says that the Hon. B. G. Young, judge of said court, is biased and prejudiced against the state of Ohio in said cause and that a fair and impartial determination of the issues by and between the parties in said cause can not be had before the Hon. Boston G. Young.

Presiding Judge Duncan, of Findlay, will assign the cases.

OUTING OF THE BILLS DRAWS A BIG CROWD

Estimated Fully 5,000 People Visit the Park.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR ENSUING YEAR

John Bill Hopley Makes a Speech. Time Given to Various Contests, Which Amuse the Bills and Their Friends—The Bills and Johns Play Game of Ball.

Officials of the Marion County Bill Picnic association estimate that fully 5,000 people attended their second annual outing at Lincoln park, Wednesday afternoon and evening. "We thought we had a big crowd last year," said County Clerk Bill Klinefelter, Thursday, "but the crowd yesterday and last night beat last year's all to smash."

Delegations of Bills came from every section of the county. Next year a banner will be given to the township sending the biggest delegation. Marion township will be permitted to compete in the banner contest only with the understanding that the city of Marion be excluded.

The following officers were elected: Bill Marsh, of LaRue, president; Bill Gearheiser, of Waldo, first vice president; Bill Burr, of Caledonia, second vice president; Bill Weir, of Scott township, third vice president; Bill Harkness, of Marion, fourth vice president; Bill Spencer, secretary, and Bill Harr, treasurer.

The president will appoint an executive committee of five, who, with the officers, will select the time and place for the third annual outing.

Besides the speech of John Bill Hopley, of Bucyrus, the afternoon's program was prolific of many amusing features.

Fifteen boys entered the watermelon contest. Andrew Postell ate his half of a melon first and received a reward of a dollar.

Dwight Berry won the newsboys' shoe race. Twenty boys took off their shoes and put them in a pile. The one who ran to the pile, found his shoes and put them on, then ran back to a certain point first, got the prize of one dollar.

Fifteen boys took part in the sack race, which was won by George Snyder, who received a dollar.

Thomas Leeper and Clarence Harger won the three-legged man's race and received a dollar each.

Fifteen girls participated in a running race in which they tried to carry an egg in a teaspoon. It was called "the ladies' egg race" and was won by fourteen-year-old Cecelia Murphy.

The needle-threading contest was won by little Miss Maggie Smith. Marion Dorfe climbed the greased pole and secured a watch that cost $1.50.

The baseball game was an entertaining farce and was won by the Johns, who walloped the Bills to the tune of thirteen to ten. Bill Scofield and John Darmody were the umpires. The Bills claim that Darmody's decisions were rotten, while the Johns make the same charges against the umpiring of "Smiling Billy." John H. Clark captained one side and Bill Johnson the other.

TRIO OF LADS CONFESS TO STEALING MONEY

Secure $100 and Are Having a Good Time.

YOUTHS APPEAR IN THE PROBATE COURT

Greater Part of Money Is Buried in a Yard—Fifteen Dollars Devoted to Livery Rigs, Candy and Peanuts. The Lads Are of Tender Years—A Statement Made.

The theft of a hundred dollars in gold was confessed to by three twelve-year-old lads before Judge W. S. Spencer in the juvenile court, Wednesday. No charges have been preferred against the youngsters, as the money was stolen from the father of one of them. He lives on east Farming street. Because the offense, the enormity of which is not realized by the boys, is their first, Judge Spencer asked that their names be withheld from the public.

Accompanied by their parents, the youthful trio appeared in court. All acknowledged that the money had been taken from a bureau drawer a week ago. At the Marion Savings bank one of the youngsters got a twenty-dollar gold piece changed. Dividing $15 equally among them, the three boys buried the remainder of the money in the backyard of one of their homes.

With the $15 the boys hired livery rigs on two different days and ate candy and peanuts until all became sick.

When the father of one of the boys missed his money he supposed at first thought his home had been entered by burglars. Then some one asked him why it was his young son had so much cash. The boy was taken in hand and confessed, implicating two other boys, whose parents in the juvenile court agreed to pay five dollars each of the $15 squandered. The loss of the other five will have to be borne by the father of the lad who took the money from the bureau drawer.

MRS. HUTCHINSON FALLS INTO CELLAR

An Accident in a Local Store Tuesday Evening.

Mrs. A. M. Hutchinson is confined to her home on east Church street as the result of injuries sustained by falling into a cellar at the Marion Department company's store, about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mrs. Hutchinson went into the store to pay a bill and enroute to the desk was taking some money from her purse. She stepped to a side window of the cashier's desk and not noticing that the door to the cellar was open, stepped off and fell a distance of about eight feet, striking on the steps at the bottom. She was assisted to a chair in the store and later made the trip home on a street car. She suffered much of her injuries and Dr. H. L. Uhler was called to attend her. Her neck, back and right shoulder are badly strained and bruised while it is thought that there is a slight fracture of the right arm.

HIS DOMESTIC WOE RECITED IN PETITION

John Starling Complains of His Wife, Rosa.

SHE ELOPES WITH AN ARDENT WOOER

A Former Lover of Mrs. Starling Wrecks His Home, It Is Alleged by Petitioner for a Divorce—Married Life Lasts but Three Months. Common Pleas Court Notes.

Alleging that his wife, Rosa, eloped with Edward Taylor, of Plantsville, Washington county, when they lived in Richland township, November 2, 1901, less than three months after they had been married, John Starling, a laborer, through Attorney H. Edmund Hill brought suit for divorce in the common pleas court, Tuesday afternoon.

The plaintiff says that he was married to the defendant at Chesterville, in August, 1901. Their happiness was shortlived. Another, a former lover, Starling says, appeared on the scene. His wooing was ardent. The bride listened to the old story and fell—that is, the husband avers, she ran away and left him all alone.

The husband also says that he ever remained faithful and true to the defendant, providing her a good home and treating her with the utmost kindness and consideration up until the time she so heartlessly deserted him.

In the suit of the Prendergast company against the Central Christian church and others, the Central Christian church, through Attorney Fred W. Warner, has filed a demurrer in the common pleas court. It sets up that the plaintiff's petition does not contain sufficient facts to constitute cause of action.

The Franklin Brewing company, of Columbus, brought suit in the common pleas court, Thursday, to recover judgment for $597.53 against Philip Knickel, William Lusch and W. C. Bachman. The plaintiff sets up that the defendants entered into a contract in 1908 to buy the Franklin beer, but the beer was delivered and the defendants have never paid the sum now sued for.

Member Is Caught in Machinery He Is Testing.

William Creasap, who is employed in the shops of the Marion Steam Shovel company, was the victim of an accident, about 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, which resulted in the loss of his left thumb.

Creasap was testing a machine and the thumb was caught in the machinery in such a manner that it was crushed to a pulp.

The member was amputated by Dr. R. S. M. Lewis and he was removed to his home on Girard avenue.

A CLASSIFIED LIST OF THE CANDIDATES

Election Board Is Now Preparing a List.

IGNORANCE OF LAW LEADS TO TROUBLE

Some of the Candidates Do Not Secure a Sufficient Number of Signers Under the Law To Make Their Petitions Valid—Proper Addresses Missing in Some Instances.

A classified list of all the various candidates for offices in Marion county will be prepared and given to the public, Friday or Saturday, said Assistant Secretary J. W. Hungate, of the board of elections, Thursday.

At a meeting of the election board, Wednesday night, it was discovered that a number of candidates for township offices had failed to secure the necessary two per cent. of signers through ignorance of the law's provisions. In some instances, candidates for township offices only took into consideration two per cent. of the vote in the township without the vote of the corporation. The vote of the corporation must be included in the two per cent. of the township, election board officials say. For instance, they say, a candidate for an office in Marion only has to secure two per cent. of his party's vote cast in the city at the last election, but a candidate for a Marion township office must secure not only the two per cent. of the township but that of Marion as well.

Many petitions do not contain the proper addresses of the signers, which the secretary of state declared to be absolutely necessary, but the local board of elections does not propose to throw any petitions out on this account where the members have certain knowledge that the signers are electors of Marion county.

Petitions not containing sufficient signers will be held invalid.

SHE GIVES HER RING TO HELP THE SOLDIERS

Story of a Splendid Woman Told by Marion Man.

INCIDENTS OF LIFE OF MRS. WILLIAM THAW

The Story Is of Timely Interest Because of the Heroic Struggle the Unfortunate Mother Makes for the Liberty of Her Unfortunate Son. Gift of a Generous Heart.

The mother interest shown by Mrs. William Thaw in trying to secure the release of her unfortunate son from an institution for the criminal insane, has attracted widespread attention and she has aroused the sympathy of thousands in her heroic struggle in the courts. In connection with this, a Marion man contributes a story which is of timely interest. The story is as follows:

When one sees the self-sacrifice with which Mrs. William Thaw, the mother of Harry K. Thaw, struggling for the freedom of her son; and her self-abnegation, even to the extent of thousands of her fortune, in the interest of that son, one is apt to think that such a spirit can spring only from mother's affection.

But the following incident, related to the writer by a friend of Mrs. Thaw, shows that the sterling qualities in that good woman were not born of the sad exigencies of her wayward boy, but that they have always been a prominent factor in the psychical make-up of that woman.

During the civil war there was an organization of Christian women whose purpose was to provide our soldier boys with some of the little comforts of life which only the gentler sex know how to provide, and of which Uncle Sam, being of the sterner sex, had no knowledge.

A branch of this organization planned a social to be held in a large Presbyterian church, the object being to raise funds for the dainties needs of the soldiers.

The affair was a success, socially as well as financially. Happiness filled the countenances of those present, except for the momentary lulls when some one would bring to mind the object of the gathering.

Toward the close of the evening, the unsold articles from various booths were gathered together and sold to the highest bidder. When the last article had been sold, the auctioneer drew from his pocket a gold ring set with a single diamond. Holding it aloft and demanding the attention of the gathering of people, he said: "This ring, a tribute of a nameless young woman to the defenders of her country, is to be sold to the highest bidder."

"Fifty dollars," shouted a voice.

"A hundred dollars," another cried.

"Who was the owner," another queried.

"The owner must remain incognito," remarked the auctioneer.

The bidding continued to $400.

"I'll give you $450 if you will throw in the girl," cried an old Chesterfield, out of the midst of the gathering.

When the laughter had subsided, a young man well up in front called out "$500." A hush fell upon the gathering; the auctioneer waited a moment or so with improvised gavel upraised. "Sold," he added a moment later, "for $500 to this young man." And then began a noisy hunt for the young woman who had made the gift. But she was not found.

Undaunted by his failure to find the erstwhile owner of the ring, the young man finally sought his home. The next day, with that tenacity which characterized his entire life, he set about to find the hand which had worn the ring. It was days before he succeeded in finding among his acquaintances a young woman who recognized the ring as the property of a young school teacher friend. The acquaintance was soon made, and former ownership of the ring confessed.

In due time the ring was again placed upon the finger it had formerly only adorned, while now it represented a life compact which was soon consummated.

The young man became one of the Pennsylvania railroad's greatest and best presidents, and the school teacher became Mrs. William Thaw, his wife.

ANOTHER MISFORTUNE SUFFERED BY FAMILY

The James Noblett Home Burned Thursday.

KITCHEN STOVE IS THE CAUSE OF FIRE

The Residence Is a Total Loss—Mr. Noblett Buries Three Members of His Family in the Past Two Years. Daughter's Funeral Is Held Tuesday—List of Misfortunes.

That misfortune never comes single handed was demonstrated, Thursday about 10 o'clock, when the home of James Noblett, about a mile east of Caledonia, was totally destroyed by fire. Mr. Noblett buried his eldest daughter, Iva, Tuesday afternoon, she having died of tuberculosis Sunday evening. This was the third member of his family Mr. Noblett has lost by tuberculosis in the past two years, his wife dying two years ago and his seventeen-year-old daughter, last October. Mr. Noblett and four small children are left with their misfortunes.

Thursday, Mrs. Camm, of Marion, who has been keeping house for Mr. Noblett, built a fire in the kitchen stove to heat water to do some washing. She used considerable kindling in building the fire. Soon she noticed the roof ablaze and hastened to secure assistance. Mr. Noblett summoned the neighbors and soon a bucket brigade was formed and everything possible was done to save the burning structure. The milk-house, which was close to the main building, was moved away out of danger. By the heroic efforts of the fire fighters the barn and other out-buildings were saved. Only a few articles of furniture were saved.

This is the second bad fire in the past few months in which Mrs. Camm has had the misfortune to be caught. She was one of the workers in the kitchen of the Abel & Coonrod restaurant when it was burned recently.

President Taft Approves the Order of Expulsion.

West Point N Y Aug 20—By direction of President Taft seven cadets were dismissed from the United States military academy for being involved in the having of Rolando Sutton Cadet Sutton is a brother of Lieutenant James N Sutton of the naval academy whose death was investigated at Annapolis recently The cadets ordered to be dismissed are John Booker Jr Richard W Hocker Earle Dunmore Chauncey Devore Gordon Lefevre Albert Crane and Jacob Fortner Sutton was assaulted while on guard duty walking a lonely post and beaten down by men wrapped in sheets and masked with pillow cases

Just what happened to Sutton who remains discreetly mute is not known The broadly spread understanding here is that Sutton was booned by a sheeted ghost and that when like a stout fisted young westerner—he was appointed from Oregon—he defended his personal dignity and his duty so effectively that the ghost was glad to take to the woods a relief party of hobgoblins descended on him with tent pegs and beat him into objection Through out the investigation Sutton's tact and loyalty to his fellow cadets have won him high popularity
